Saturday 16th March 2024

On Saturday October 7th, 2023, the Iran backed<sup>1</sup> Palestinian and radical Islamic Terrorist organisation Hamas launched barbaric attacks on Israel near its border with the Palestinian territory of the Gaza strip. Using rockets, motorised paragliders,<sup>2</sup> boats, motorcycles and other vehicles, and whatever other means they could, terrorists infiltrated Israel with one goal—to murder and kidnap Israelis.

Over 1,300 Israelis have been killed and close to 3,400 are wounded. Over 150 hostages had been taken. More than 4,500 rockets have been fired at Israeli towns and Israeli families were huddled in bomb shelters.<sup>3</sup>

Much has been made of the security failure by Israel, with accusations that a border fence upon which “a cockroach could not supposedly cross without being detected,” was an Israeli deep state false-flag operation to provide a pretext for Israeli bombing and ultimate invasion and occupation of the Palestinian Gaza strip. Make of that what you will. However, the focus of this article is to debunk the notion of a perceived illegitimate state of modern-day Israel as a blank cheque justification for the inexorable and unspeakable barbarity of the Hamas October 7th attack. Of which I have seen footage, including that of burnt bodies of babies,<sup>4</sup> as well as kidnapped, bound Israeli and Thai citizens in a Hamas tunnel in Gaza,<sup>5</sup> being legitimised in the Islamist Terrorist and anti-Semitic mindsets under the perceived non-existent right of the so-called “apartheid state” of Israel to exist. Later, I will discuss the motivation and true agenda behind the pro-Palestinian, in effect, pro-Hamas protests globally, and how the nefarious globalist but anti-Zionist players of George Soros and the United Nations, fit into all this.

To begin with, the origin the modern-day Israel, and hence the legitimacy of its modern-day existence, was affirmed by Biblical Old Testament prophecy,<sup>6</sup> following two millennia of non-existence, being fulfilled when David Ben-Gurion, the head of the Jewish Agency, proclaimed the establishment of the State of Israel on May 14, 1948.<sup>7</sup> And as will be discussed, its survival in the immediate aftermath of Ben-Gurion's declaration, and indeed, still to this day, is miraculous in and of itself, as if to further vindicate Old Testament Biblical prophecy.<sup>8</sup> Hence, my not buying the notion of modern-day Israel being a “false Israel” rather than the Israel of Biblical prophecy.

Throughout 1947, the United Nations Special Commission on Palestine examined the Palestinian question and recommended the partition of Palestine into a Jewish and an Arab state. On November 29, 1947 the United Nations adopted Resolution 181 (also known as the Partition Resolution) that would divide Great Britain's former Palestinian mandate into Jewish and Arab states in May 1948 when the British mandate was scheduled to end. Under the resolution, the area of religious significance surrounding Jerusalem would remain a corpus separatum under international control administered by the United Nations.

Often, one hears of calling upon Israel to agree to a "two state solution." However, that is what had been proposed under the UN Resolution 181, only to be trampled upon by the five Arab states of Egypt, Syria, Transjordan, Lebanon, and Iraq when they erroneously assessed abject Israeli weakness upon invading Israel immediately upon its declaration of independence on May 14, 1948. At the time of this invasion, the Arab held land in what had been known as Palestine, amounted to two to three times the size of Israeli held land.<sup>9</sup> The proposed UN 1947 two state solution was more like 50-50.<sup>10</sup> But by March 1949, ten or so months following the Arab invasion in May 1948, the share of Israeli territory expanded to 5,000 km<sup>2</sup> over and above the areas allocated to it by the United Nations.<sup>11</sup> What is now known as the West Bank, came under Jordanian control, while Gaza was absorbed by Egypt.<sup>12</sup> Jerusalem, initially under full Arab control in the 1947 UN Resolution 181, was now located right on the border between the Jordanian West Bank territory and Israel. This meant its east came under Jordanian control, and its west under Israeli administration.<sup>13</sup> To which it is worth noting, that what today we would refer to as Palestinians in the Gaza Strip and West Bank, had no objection back then to being considered part of Egypt and Jordan respectively. In other words, no bellowing then of occupation in the "Palestinian" territories.

Hence, the Arab war to destroy Israel failed. Indeed, because of their aggression, the Arabs wound up with less territory than they would have had if they had accepted partition.<sup>14</sup> Moreover, in 1936, in response to the Arab Revolt against the British mandatory government and repeated Arab violence against Jews, the British government appointed a commission of inquiry headed by Lord Peel to assess the cause of the Arab riots and the performance of the Mandate government.<sup>15</sup> In July 1937, the Peel Commission recommended for the first time a partition of the land into a Jewish state and an Arab state alongside an international zone, stretching from Jerusalem to Jaffa, that would remain under British mandatory authority.<sup>16</sup> The Commission also recommended an exchange of land and population between the two states. The Peel partition plan was rejected by the Arabs, and was widely debated amongst the Jewish leadership. In 1938, the British declared the plan unimplementable.<sup>17</sup>

The cost however to Israel, of the 1948-49 Arab-Israeli war was enormous. Many of its most productive fields lay gutted and mined. Its citrus groves, the basis of the Yishuv's economy for decades, were largely destroyed. Military expenditures totalled approximately $500 million. Worse yet, 6,373 Israelis were killed, nearly one percent of the Jewish population of 650,000.<sup>18</sup>

AND NO ... Israel did NOT receive any military help from the U.S. In 1947, and again on May 14, 1948, the United States had offered de facto recognition of the Israeli Provisional Government, but during the war, the United States maintained an arms embargo against all belligerents in the Middle East region.<sup>19</sup>

On the other hand, the Arabs had no difficulty obtaining all the arms they needed. Jordan's Arab Legion was armed and trained by the British and led by a British officer. The British also considered intervening by invoking its defence treaties with Egypt and Jordan if Israel attacked either country. At the end of 1948 and the beginning of 1949, British RAF planes flew with Egyptian squadrons over the Israel-Egypt border. On January 7, 1949, Israeli planes shot down four British aircraft.<sup>20</sup>

The Jews, on the other hand, were forced to smuggle weapons, principally from Czechoslovakia. When Israel declared its independence in May 1948, the army did not have a single cannon or tank.

Its air force consisted of nine obsolete planes. Although the Haganah had 60,000 trained fighters, only 18,900 were fully mobilised, armed, and prepared for war. On the eve of the war, chief of operations Yigael Yadin told David Ben-Gurion: “The best we can tell you is that we have a 50 – 50 chance.”<sup>21</sup>

As soon as the armistice agreements were signed and the immediate danger had passed, the Israeli Defence Force – IDF - except for a small nucleus - was not only demobilised, but effectively disbanded.<sup>22</sup> The new state had urgent tasks which required all its resources, above all that of absorbing the flood of new immigrants, who at last were able to come “home”. An attempt to keep the demobilised soldiers in some sort of reserve framework failed. However, for the time being there was little inclination on the Arab side to renew full-scale fighting. Not that they had come to face reality and recognise Israel - far from it; but they did realise that to fight against Israel required thorough preparation.<sup>23</sup>

In the meantime they found a covert tool to continue the Arab war against Israel. Palestinian fedayun (suicide troops) infiltrated across the long and ill-protected border - and it should be recalled that no place in Israel was far from the border: infiltrations for the purpose of stealing farm equipment were followed by the laying of mines, the killing of individuals, and wholesale massacres. The fedayun (fedayeen) were trained, equipped and paid for by Egyptian Intelligence, although they operated mainly from bases in Jordan, so that Jordan would bear the brunt of Israel's retaliation, which inevitably followed. And each time Israel retaliated, the UN Security Council condemned it; condemnation of an Arab government had long since become an impossibility, because of the pro-Arab Soviet veto.<sup>24</sup>

Indeed ever since, incessant UN resolutions against Israel continue, with hardly any ever passed against Arab states.<sup>25</sup> Put another way, the ultra-corrupt Globalist entity that is the UN, is Israel's enemy and friends of the Arab nations' and terrorist states like the Hamas backing and Islamic fundamentalist state Iran – which legally recognises marriage to brides even under 13 years of age!!<sup>26</sup> Moreover, as the Romanian defector Lieutenant General Ion Michal Pacepa – highest ranking Eastern Bloc Cold War defector to the U.S. put it:

During my last ten years in Romania [1968 - 1978], the Soviet bloc intelligence community poured millions of dollars and thousands of people into this gigantic project [to vilify Israel and its main ally the U.S.]. When I defected [in 1978], virtually all UN employees and representatives from the communist countries (comprising one-third of the world's population) and their Arab allies were secretly working, in one way or another, for the bloc's espionage services.<sup>27</sup>

In 1967, Israel again was confronted with another multi-front Arab invasion which became known as the Six-Day War. And again, the Israelis kicked Arab arse, by seizing the Jordanian West Bank and Egyptian controlled Sinai Peninsula and Gaza Strip.<sup>28</sup> The Sinai peninsula was a substantial territorial gain for Israel, given that it was larger than entire pre-1967 Israel.<sup>29</sup> However, in 1978 to secure a peace deal with Egypt under Anwar Sadat, Israel conceded the entire Sinai Peninsula back to Egypt.<sup>30</sup>

This was five years following the outbreak of the 1973 Yom Kippur [Jewish Day of Atonement]<sup>31</sup> War, also known as the Ramadan War from October 6th to 25th, resulting in yet another Israeli victory. However, Israel in the the Sinai Interim Agreement, signed in Geneva on September 4, 1975, agreed to withdrawing 20–40 km with UN forces buffering the vacated area.<sup>32</sup> After the agreement, Israel still held more than two-thirds of Sinai, which proved to be an invaluable bargaining chip in the subsequent 1978 peace agreement.<sup>33</sup> Sadly however in 1981, Anwar Sadat would be assassinated in Cairo for his role in Egypt becoming the first Arab state to recognise the right of Israel to exist.<sup>34</sup> To which the Islamic fundamentalist Iran<sup>35</sup> and its terrorist proxy Hamas,<sup>36</sup> are sworn to obliterate,<sup>37</sup> as epitomised in the horrendously barbaric Hamas attacks of October 7th, 2023 – the 50th anniversary of the 1973 Yom Kippur War.

Claims have been made by the American activist, author and former politician Ron Paul in the U.S. House of Representatives on May 25, 2011 that Hamas is a creature encouraged and created by Israel and the U.S. in order to counter the Palestine Liberation Organisation (PLO) headed by Yasser Arafat,<sup>38</sup> who in the early 1960s, was tasked by the Soviet KGB disinformation department to create and head a terrorist group named Fatah.<sup>39</sup> Subsequent to which, in the aftermath of the 1967 Six Day Arab-Israeli War, the KGB manoeuvred to catapult him as chairman of the PLO.<sup>40</sup> Indeed, the Egyptian ruler and Soviet puppet, Gamal Abdel Nasser, publicly proposed the appointment.<sup>41</sup> However, Daniel Greenfield, a Shillman Journalism Fellow at the David Horowitz Freedom Center and investigative journalist and writer focusing on the radical Left and Islamic terrorism,<sup>42</sup> documented that;

“Hamas is an arm of the Muslim Brotherhood (MB), an organisation founded in Egypt in the 1920s. In its early days, it coordinated with and received support from Nazi Germany. Since Israel closed its border with Gaza in 2007, Hamas has had plenty of support from MB organisations around the world (and during the Obama Arab Spring, the MB temporarily took over Egypt) and from terror state sponsors like Iran and Qatar. Israel is stuck with an Islamic terrorist problem. Like most countries, it unfortunately alternates between fighting them and trying to appease them. But appeasement never works. War always follows.”<sup>43</sup>

The Gaza Strip used to be ruled by Egypt, which helps explain the strength of Hamas in the area. The Muslim Brotherhood operates in the United States and Europe under different names and front groups, such as the Council on American-Islamic Relations (CAIR). It also has terrorist organisations, including arguably Al Qaeda, whose leaders have mostly been MB members, and which after Osama Bin Laden was run by members of an Egyptian Muslim Brotherhood splinter group.<sup>44</sup>

The Gaza Strip, as already discussed, used to be ruled by Egypt, which helps explain the strength of Hamas in the area. The Muslim Brotherhood operates in the United States and Europe under different names and front groups, such as the Council on American-Islamic Relations (CAIR). It also has terrorist organisations, including arguably Al Qaeda, whose leaders have mostly been MB members, and which after Osama Bin Laden was run by members of an Egyptian Muslim Brotherhood splinter group.

The Muslim Brotherhood operates under various identities inside Israel. There are two branches of the Islamic Movement, one of which has seats in the Knesset (parliament). Hamas initially resembled them, focusing on religion, social work and non-violent politics, before it gained strength and revealed its real true agenda.

This is how the Muslim Brotherhood tends to operate. It pretends to be political and non-violent until it can seize power. The Israelis, like the Americans and Europeans, were initially fooled by Hamas and viewed it as western governments tend to see Muslim Brotherhood organisations in their own countries as religious and political, but not terrorist.<sup>i</sup>

<sup>i</sup> The theme of Hamas pretending to be political and non-violent until it can seize power, is brilliantly documented by Brannon Howse in his April 2019 documentary Sabotage The Movie Part 1 at <https://www.worldviewweekend.com/situation-room/video/sabotage-movie-hour-1>. In particular, Muslim Brotherhood and its offshoots infiltration of the American FBI from about 20 to 40 minutes. Hamas indeed gets a mention – go to 34:06. Read also <https://www.jihadwatch.org/2023/11/texas-muslim-murders-swat-cop-and-two-hostages-was-on-fbi-terror-watchlist-had-bomb-making-materials> and NOTE the first paragraph: He was on the terror watch list, but the

Hamas is not a monster that Israel created, but one that came out of Islam and was financed by Muslim countries for the same reasons as Al Qaeda and other Islamic terrorist groups.<sup>45</sup>

To exemplify Muslim Brotherhood and their offshoots' propensity in pretending to be political and non-violent until it can seize power, is when the the Battle of Gaza from 10th to the 15th of June 2007, also referred to as Hamas' takeover of Gaza, took place. It was a military conflict between the rival Palestinian factions Fatah (As just mentioned, Fatah was founded by Arafat under KGB behest in the early 1960s)<sup>46</sup> and Hamas. It was a prominent event in the Fatah–Hamas conflict, centred on the struggle for power after Fatah lost the 2006 Palestinian legislative election, but refused to duly acknowledge the result. The battle resulted in the dissolution of the unity government and the de facto division of the Palestinian territories into two entities: the West Bank governed by the Palestinian National Authority (PNA), and the Gaza Strip governed by Hamas. Hamas fighters took control of the Gaza Strip, while Fatah officials were either taken as prisoners, executed, or expelled. The Palestinian Centre for Human Rights reported that at least 161 people were killed and more than 700 were wounded during the fighting.<sup>47</sup>

In 1994, Yasser Arafat had seemingly transformed himself into a “man of peace” when he was awarded the Nobel Peace Prize. The machinations for this “transformation” had its genesis sixteen years earlier in 1978, just months preceding the defection of Ion Michal Pacepa to the US Embassy in Bonn West Germany in July 1978.<sup>48</sup> Earlier that year, the Soviet leader Leonid Brezhnev and his KGB chairman Yuri Andropov, approached the despotic Romanian President Nicolae Ceaușescu in a disinformation plot aimed at having Arafat pretend to the U.S. under the naive presidency of Jimmy Carter, that he had transformed himself and his PLO into instruments of peace. The ultimate objective of which being to establish for his PLO, formal diplomatic ties with Washington.

Among naive Western nations, Ceaușescu had already established himself as the most favoured of all Communist Eastern-bloc tyrants, due to a superficial discord with some aspects of Soviet foreign policy. Sniffing a potential Nobel Peace Prize with Arafat, Ceaușescu jumped at the chance to persuade the “transformation” of Arafat from terrorist to peacemaker.

At first, Arafat was in a stunned state of disbelief as he exploded. “But we are a revolution!” and “We were born a revolution and will remain a revolution” as he postulated that Palestinians lacked the tradition, unity and discipline to become a formal state. That was something for future generation.<sup>49</sup> That all governments, even communist ones, were hindered by laws and international agreements, and was not interested to place any laws or other obstacles in the way of the Palestinian struggle to eradicate the state of Israel. Implying one could argue, that the notion of Palestine manifests itself much more as an anti-nation,<sup>ii</sup> rather than a nation.

However, Ceaușescu was able to convince Arafat to ultimately deceive a naive President Jimmy Carter, while still sympathetically conceding that “a war of terror was Arafat’s only realistic weapon.” However, if the deception succeeded, Ceaușescu told Arafat that as a government in exile formally breaking with terrorism, a naive West would shower him with gifts of money and glory. In April 1978, Pacepa accompanied Ceaușescu to Washington as the latter convinced Carter he could persuade Arafat to remake himself and his PLO as instruments of peace.<sup>50</sup> To which, in 1994, the awarding of the Nobel Peace Prize to Arafat was an unequivocal testament to the success of the overall Soviet/Eastern-bloc strategy of deceit and deception.

feds clearly weren't watching. They were too busy hunting for Jan. 6 'insurrectionists' and 'white supremacists'.

ii Jerusalem Post article <https://www.jpost.com/Opinion/Columnists/UN-nation-un-nation-non-nation-anti-nation> most aptly titled UN-nation; un-nation; non-nation; anti-nation.

Yet in 1995, the number of Israelis killed by Palestinian terrorists rose by 73% compared to the two year period preceding the awarding of Arafat's Nobel Peace Prize. By the end of the 1998-99 Palestinian school year, Arafat's Palestinian Authority described Israel as the "Zionist enemy" and equated Zionism with Nazism.<sup>51</sup>

In 2000, Israel had proposed a two-state solution where the Palestinians had total sovereignty in Gaza and sovereignty in more than 95% of the West Bank.<sup>52</sup> This in spite of the fact that in 1948, the invading Arab states rejected the UN version of it in its resolution 181, thus precipitating the First Arab-Israeli War.<sup>53</sup> Yet, in September 2000, Arafat started a second intifada. By June 2002, there was already a recorded 13,494 incidents of Palestinian terrorism against Israelis in which more than 600 civilians were killed. Six months later, the number of Israeli civilians killed by the PLO's "martyrs" (NOTE: Christian martyrs never but never, take the lives of others with them!) exceeded 700.<sup>54</sup>

On November 11, 2004, Arafat died in Paris. The illness was short and the cause of death was not clear. However, following Swiss tests carried out on his clothing in July 2012, which found traces of Polonium-210, suspicions have abounded that he died of poisoning from Polonium-210.<sup>55</sup> Used as neutron source when mixed or alloyed with beryllium for nuclear uses, when it is ingested, it is a deadly radioactive metallic isotope of high chemical toxicity.<sup>56</sup>

On November 1st 2006, two years following Arafat's death, the former KGB officer and defector to the UK, Alexander Litvinenko, just like Arafat, suddenly fell ill and was hospitalised. Three weeks later on the 22nd, he died. Later, his poisoning was attributed to Polonium-210, which was used by the Soviet Union as a neutron trigger or initiator for nuclear weapons.<sup>57</sup> He had made explosive revelations to Britain's MI6 in regard to the KGB and its post-Cold War successor the FSB.<sup>58</sup>

Pacepa speculates that Arafat had become tiresome for the KGB/FSB, and pointed to files from the Mitrokhin archive smuggled to the UK in 1992 (the year following the Soviet collapse in 1991) by the former KGB archivist of three decades; Vasili Mitrokhin,<sup>59</sup> exposing Arafat's close links to the KGB and Romanian Cold War Intelligence – the DIE.<sup>60</sup> Mitrokhin died in January 2004 – the same year as Arafat.<sup>61</sup> Mahmoud Abbas, educated in the Soviet Union, has taken Arafat's place in the newly named Palestinian National Authority.<sup>62</sup>

On Monday, September 12, 2022, Ismail Haniyeh, the political head of the Hamas terror group, met with Russian Foreign Minister Sergey Lavrov in Moscow. On Saturday 10th, Hamas spokesman Taher al-Nono said the meeting had come at Russia's request and that the sides would discuss bilateral relations and Israeli "violations."<sup>63</sup> The visit came amid fraying ties between Jerusalem and Moscow, largely over Israel's support for Ukraine since Russia's February 24, 2022 invasion of its neighbour. Russia has sought to shut down the Jewish Agency from operating in its territory and has indicated little patience for airstrikes, attributed to Israel, on Iranian targets inside Syria.<sup>64</sup> And back in March this year of 2023, Ismail Haniyeh again met with Sergey Lavrov in Moscow.<sup>65</sup>

Moreover, Moscow's public support for Hamas increased as its relations with Israel soured following its invasion of Ukraine in February 2022. Israel has maintained a cautious stance in the war, but Israeli Foreign Minister Eli Cohen's February 2023 visit to Kyiv marked a small shift as Israel grew more concerned about Moscow-Tehran military cooperation and the use of Iranian drones in Ukraine.<sup>66</sup>

Furthermore, post October 7th 2023, on the 26th of that month, Hamas representatives arrived in Moscow to discuss the ongoing war with Israel with Russia's deputy foreign minister, Mikhail Bogdanov, in a meeting that was also attended by Ali Bagheri Kani, the deputy foreign minister of the terror group's chief sponsor, Iran.<sup>67</sup> The Hamas delegation was led by Musa Abu Marzouk, head of the terror group's International Relations Office, and also included Basem Naim, the former Hamas health minister in Gaza, and the organisation's representative in Moscow.<sup>68</sup>

Yet sadly, many in Freedom movements in the West, naively view the ex-KGB thug Vladimir Putin and his Russia as our heroes, being supposedly, the only thing standing between us and the Globalists like Klaus Schwab of the World Economic Forum, the UN and George Soros. The logic being perhaps, that if our ultra-corrupt mainstream media asserts that Zelensky is the total hero, and Putin the quintessential villain, then the truth with its "zero nuances" implies the exact opposite. In the process, ignoring Russia's alliance with China, Venezuela, Iran and North Korea – hardly bastions of freedom, not to mention Klaus Schwab himself on October 2, 2017 at Harvard University's John F. Kennedy School of Government, when he proclaimed that Angela Merkel and yes, Vladimir Putin were Young Global Leaders of the World Economic Forum,<sup>72</sup> with the likes of Justin Trudeau being the younger generation he was more than proud of – given their penetration of government cabinets in their native countries.<sup>73</sup> Moreover, Putin's full steam ahead with COVID jab mandates and Central Banking Digital Currency.<sup>74</sup> In short, the truth of Russia on its domestic front, hardly aligns with the notion of Putin and his Russia being our saviour from Globalist dystopia.

I have written a huge in depth blog article on the Russia-Ukraine War,<sup>75</sup> with its body preceded by a 26 point summary. The small photo at the beginning of Putin whispering into Hilary Clinton's ear, quintessentially embodies my feelings on this globalist agenda driven war from both sides. The notion of the ex-KGB thug Putin as a now staunch anti-communist and devout Orthodox Christian is debunked. For one thing, at Sochi Russia in 2017, Putin to rousing applause, gave several speeches to gatherings at the World Youth Communist Convention in celebration of the 100th anniversary of Russia's 1917 Bolshevik Revolution.<sup>76</sup>

Moreover, Putin's funding of "Green" groups in the West to undermine Western energy independence.<sup>77</sup> His "dismay" at the West's descent into the WOKE abyss, is merely one of crocodile tears, masking his true contempt for the West. In short, like Xi Jinping's China, Kim Jon Un's North Korea, Nicolás Maduro's Socialist "utopia" of Venezuela, Islamist Iran and the Gaza Strip of the mass-murdering Islamic Fundamentalist Hamas,<sup>78</sup> he has no use for WOKE ideology in Russia, but celebrates its destructive effect in undermining Western democracies.

Furthermore, the story of Alexander Dugin, himself closely linked to the Russian elite including Vladimir Putin. Dugin's father was also high up in Soviet intelligence. Dugin has a raging hatred for the West and its traditional NON-WOKE values – and indeed for Ukraine itself, bordering on genocidal. The original Facebook post of the Canadian Institute of Ukrainian Studies had the original Russian text and English translation of Dugin's genocidal thoughts on Ukraine.<sup>79</sup> However, it was removed in mid-June 2022, but I have the screenshot of it on my website.<sup>80</sup> Dugin's original post on Facebook was also removed in mid-June 2022,<sup>81</sup> but it is still available on the WayBack machine<sup>82</sup> and the screenshot of it on my website.<sup>83</sup> His book, the bible for the Russian elite and intelligence – ‘Основы геополитики (геополитическое будущее России) / Osnovy geopolitiki:

Geopoliticheskoe budushchee Rossii – ‘The Foundations of Geopolitics: The Geopolitical Future of Russia’ reads like Hitler’s Mein Kampf and is NOT meant for Western consumption.<sup>84</sup>

Given the above, including the Putin regime’s embrace of Hamas and his overall web of alliances, one can only conclude that Putin must have welcomed the Hamas perpetrated mass-murder of October 7th 2023. It’s also worth noting that in the Soviet era, there was one KGB agent for every 428 citizens, but in 2004, there was one FSB agent for every 297 Russian citizens.<sup>85</sup>

Much has been made by some of the role played by the Jewish global banking family the Rothschilds in creating the modern-day state of Israel.<sup>86</sup> In truth, some Rothschilds supported Israel and some were passionately opposed. No doubt many financial institutions were involved in Israel’s early days, some were Rothschild banks, many more were not.<sup>87</sup>

Theodore Herzl, a secular Viennese Jewish writer (1860-1904), was regarded by many as the architect of the transformation of the Zionist concept of the Jewish return to their true homeland into a mass movement, starting with the publication in 1896 of his pamphlet The Jewish State. On its heels came upon his initiative, the First Zionist Congress in Basel Switzerland in 1897, then his historic pledge in 1903 on the subject of Jerusalem at the Sixth Zionist Congress. Then he died suddenly in 1904, at the age of forty-four.

In London in 1902, Herzl met privately with Lord Nathaniel Mayer Rothschild (head of the English branch of the family), who sat on the British Royal Commission on Alien Immigration, (Which had been established to investigate the influx of Jewish refugees from Russia and Romania. The British Jewish population had risen to about 100,000, prompting alarm about the continuing inflow.) and who saw Zionism as a threat to the acceptance of British Jews as loyal subjects. He asked Herzl to support the idea of Jews as Englishmen in his testimony—and Herzl flatly refused, insisting that he would “simply tell them what frightful misery prevails among eastern Jewry, and that the people must either die or get out.”<sup>88</sup>

Three days later, Herzl told the Commission “the state of Jewry is worse today than it was seven years ago when I published my pamphlet;” that in Eastern Europe—where most of world Jewry lived—things were “becoming worse and worse day by day;” and that the solution was “recognition of Jews as a people, and the finding by them of a legally recognised home,” so they would arrive “arrive there as citizens . . . because they are Jews, and not as aliens.”

During the questioning, Lord Rothschild asked Herzl to define what he meant by “Zionism.” He asked whether it was a “movement to re-establish a Jewish state in Palestine, or whether . . . you simply mean that some great endeavour should be made to colonise some part of the world entirely with Jews.” Herzl knew it was a loaded question, and he responded by telling the Commission it was both.

So clearly, not all the Rothschilds were for Theodore Herzl’s Zionist dream. Nevertheless, the legacy of Herzl would not die, but rather like the Jewish identity and culture would stubbornly survive nearly two millennia in exile, Herzl’s legacy would survive to be manifested over four decades later on May 14th, 1948, when David Ben-Gurion proclaimed Israel’s independence in Tel Aviv—a city that did not exist in 1897—under a massive photograph of Theodore Herzl,<sup>89</sup> flanked by two flags of the Star of David identical to the one Herzl had hung in Basel.<sup>90</sup>

Moreover, as already implied, but to reiterate explicitly, no Rothschild had anything to do with Israel’s miraculous victory in the First Arab-Israeli War, when five invading Arab states, like a pack of sharks perceiving an abjectly weak prey, attempted to strangle the newborn Israel of Biblical prophecy in its cradle.

That is not to say, there were no Rothschilds that supported Herzl's dream. Most prominent of which was Baron Edmond James de Rothschild of the French branch.<sup>91</sup> He was prominent in founding Jewish colonies in Ottoman Turkish Palestine from around the early 1880s until the turn of the 19th-20th centuries,<sup>92</sup> when he relinquished control of the colonies he founded in 1901 to the settlement company founded by another rich, noble-titled Jew, the Baron Morris Hirsch.<sup>93</sup>

The Rothschilds did have some influence also in later parts of Zionist history, and there is in Tel Aviv a large tree-lined "Rothschild Boulevard" (one of the best places for Tel Avivians to take an afternoon stroll). But in general, by 1948 the Rothschilds' influence on the creation of Israel was rather minor – and certainly had nothing to do with Israel's miraculous survival in the First Israeli-Arab War of 1948-49. They were among many people and groups who had some influence on it - no more.<sup>94</sup>

Among anti-Semites, the narrative of the fake-Jewish Khazarian mafia, of which the Rothschilds, global bankers in general, the rabid radical-leftist billionaire George Soros and European communists, especially Bolsheviks of the 1917 Bolshevik Revolution, are supposedly a part of, well and truly abounds. The agenda behind it being, given that 80% of today's Jews are Ashkenazic Jews, that the Jewish right to the land of Israel, for the vast majority of Jews, is illegitimate, and hence implies, the inherent illegitimacy of modern-day Israel.

Since the late 19th century, the so-called "Khazarian theory" has promoted the idea that a bulk of Ashkenazic Jews living in Eastern Europe descended from medieval Khazars, a semi-nomadic Turkic people who founded a powerful polyethnic state in the Caucasus and north to the Caspian, Azov and Black seas.<sup>95</sup> Not from ancient Israel.

The Ashkenazic Jews however were displaced following the Roman siege of Jerusalem in 70 AD, and ended up in the Rhineland and Danube Valleys of modern-day Western Germany and Austria.<sup>96</sup> From which evolved their language of Yiddish – a Germanic language with no trace of Turkic origin.<sup>97</sup> It had absorbed Slavic, French and some Greek influences, but no evidence of Turkic influence.

In 1863, a white supremacist and anti-Semitic scholar Ernest Renan wrote the hugely popular book The Life of Jesus, claiming that Jesus was able to purify himself of Jewish traits and become an Aryan Christian. (Aryans being the ideal race espoused in Hitler's National Socialism. In particular, tall people of blonde hair and blue eyes.) Renan's book was heavily rooted in Eugenics, and proposed the idea that most Jews were not actually, ethnic Jews.<sup>98</sup> However, by the 1930-40s when the Eugenics ideas of the Nazi Party to justify genocide were becoming common knowledge, this idea of the "Khazarian Jews" fell out of favour, only to be resurrected strangely in 1976 in the book The Thirteenth Tribe by a Jewish man Arthur Koestler, who naively thought that by proving the majority of Jewry to be of far Eastern European or Western Asian origin, rather than ethnically Jewish, would eliminate anti-Semitism!!<sup>99</sup> Naturally, it was taken up by every anti-Semite under the sun, both Caucasian and Middle Eastern. Of course, this theory had no more credibility than it did in Ernest Renan's day, even though the reason for it, may have been construed as noble.

Most recently, the Khazarian hypothesis has been promoted by authors like the Tel Aviv University professor of history Shlomo Sand and Tel Aviv University professor of linguistics Paul Wexler, as well the geneticist Eran Elhaik of the University of Sheffield.<sup>100</sup>

Despite this institutional backing, the theory is absolutely without evidence. As any historian will tell you, generations of Jews, like generations of any people, leave historical traces behind them. These traces come in multiple forms. For starters, people leave behind them historical documents and archaeological data. Predictably, archaeologic evidence about the widespread existence of Jews in Khazaria is almost nonexistent. While a series of independent sources does testify to the existence in the 10th century of Jews in the multi-faith/multi-ethnic Kingdom of Khazaria, and while some of these sources also indicate that the ruling elite of Khazaria embraced Judaism, the Khazarian state was destroyed by Russians during the 960s AD.<sup>101</sup>

The next historical record of Jews, in a few cities that today belong to western Ukraine and western Belarus, shows up in the 14th century, when Jews are regularly referred to in numerous documents. And yet, no direct historiographical data is available to connect the Jews who lived in Eastern Europe in the 14th century with their co-religionists from the 10th-century Khazaria.<sup>102</sup>

But history is not the only discipline to debunk the Khazarian hypothesis. Linguistics, too, and the study of Yiddish help us rule out a Khazarian ancestry for today's Jews. Since the 17th century, Yiddish was the vernacular language of all Jews of Eastern Europe. All its main structural elements are German, though during the past few centuries, they also underwent a strong influence of Slavic languages.<sup>103</sup>

This view is shared by all major Yiddish linguists — but not by Paul Wexler. Wexler believes there to be certain structural Turkic and Iranian elements “hidden” in Yiddish. However, his methods rely heavily on fortuitous coincidences. And if you apply them more widely, you can link Yiddish to any language in the world.<sup>104</sup>

In addition to history and linguistics, a third discipline can help us put to rest the Khazarian hypothesis: onomastics, or the study of proper names. Looking at names, both first names and surnames, gives us a sense of how a community saw itself, its language and its origins. And in the Jewish communities of Eastern Europe over the past six centuries, not a single Turkic name can be found in documents listing Jewish names. Even in documents from the 15th and 16th centuries dealing with Jews who lived in the territories of modern Ukraine and Belarus have no such names.<sup>105</sup>

Finally, there is genetics. One does not have to be a professional geneticist to see the inadequacy of the methodologies used by Eran Elhaik, the champion of the “Khazarian theory” in that domain. In his paper of 2013, he pretends to show that modern Ashkenazic Jews are genetically closer to Khazars than to biblical Hebrews. The last mention of Khazars is almost one thousand years old, but still pre-dating Biblical times by a millennia. For these reasons, Elhaik needed modern substitutes, so he substituted Armenians and Georgians for Khazars (because all of them are related in some way to the Caucasus region); and he substituted Israeli Palestinians for biblical Hebrews. In his paper of 2016, he analyses the links between various population groups by introducing another “bold” idea, that of finding a sort of “geographic average” point for various genetic features. Using it, he links the Ashkenazic Jews to the southern part of the Black sea, not far from the Turkish border but still in places inhabited by fish only.<sup>106</sup>

To cap off the genetic angle further discrediting the Ashkenazic-Khazar link, is a 2010 study by the The American Society of Human Genetics, titled Abraham's Children in the Genome Era: Major Jewish Diaspora Populations Comprise Distinct Genetic Clusters with Shared Middle Eastern Ancestry analysing the genetic code of 237 subjects.<sup>107</sup> Here, the genome-wide analysis of seven Jewish groups (Iranian, Iraqi, Syrian, Italian, Turkish, Greek, and Ashkenazi) and comparison with non-Jewish groups demonstrated distinctive Jewish population clusters, each with shared Middle Eastern ancestry proximity to contemporary Middle Eastern populations, and variable degrees of European and North African admixture.<sup>108</sup> In short; not a shred of any link to the Turkic Khazars! Moreover, as documented on page 8:

“Thus, the genetic proximity of these European/Syrian Jewish populations, including Ashkenazi Jews, to each other and to French, Northern Italian, and Sardinian populations favors the idea of non-Semitic Mediterranean ancestry in the formation of the European/Syrian Jewish groups and is incompatible with theories that Ashkenazi Jews are for the most part the direct lineal descendants of converted Khazars or Slavs.”<sup>109</sup>

Finally however, and perhaps most ironically in regard to the dubious Jewish-Ashkenazic-Khazarian link theory, the most rabid and infamous anti-Semite of all, Adolf Hitler himself in “Chapter XI – RACE AND PEOPLE” of his turgid 1925 published work; Mein Kampf (My Struggle), wrote the following:

“The first Jews came into what was then called Germania during the period of the Roman invasion; and, as usual, they came as merchants. During the turmoil caused by the great migrations of the German tribes the Jews seem to have disappeared. We may therefore consider the period when the Germans formed the first political communities as the beginning of that process whereby Central and Northern Europe was again, and this time permanently, Judaized. A development began which has always been the same or similar wherever and whenever Jews came into contact with Aryan peoples.”<sup>iii</sup>

To which it seems indeed, that the most rabid anti-Semite in all of human history, had never believed in the highly questionable Jewish-Ashkenazic-Khazarian link theory. As stated a little earlier, it was in 1863, a white supremacist and anti-Semitic scholar Ernest Renand wrote the hugely popular book The Life of Jesus, claiming that Jesus was able to purify himself of Jewish traits and become an Aryan Christian. (Aryans being the ideal race espoused in Hitler’s National Socialism. In particular, tall people of blonde hair and blue eyes.) Renand’s book was heavily rooted in Eugenics, and proposed the idea that most Jews were not actually, ethnic Jews.<sup>110</sup> However, by the 1930-40s [Mein Kampf being published in 1925<sup>111</sup>] when the Eugenics ideas of the Nazi Party to justify genocide were becoming common knowledge, this idea of the “Khazarian Jews” fell out of favour, only to be resurrected strangely in 1976 in the book The Thirteenth Tribe by a Jewish man Arthur Koestler, who naively thought that by proving the majority of Jewry to be of far Eastern European or Western Asian origin, rather than ethnically Jewish, would eliminate anti-Semitism!!<sup>112</sup> Naturally, it was taken up by every anti-Semite under the sun, both Caucasian and Middle Eastern. Of course, this theory had no more credibility than it did in Ernest Renand’s day, even though the reason for it, may have been construed as noble.

where the reason for the title of this essay will become clear, it's appropriate to explore the question of "what is Palestine and its origin?"

The name Palestine derives from Philistia, the name given by Greek writers to the land of the Philistines, who in the 12th century BC, about the time of the arrival of the Israelites,<sup>113</sup> occupied a small pocket of land on the southern coast, between modern-day Tel Aviv–Yafo and Gaza.<sup>114</sup> (Roughly corresponding with the territory of the modern-day Gaza Strip. Certainly nowhere near anything like what modern-day Israel encompasses.)<sup>115</sup> By 1,000 BC, the Israelite kingdom under King David and his son Solomon, even encompassed the modern-day Syrian capital of Damascus to the north and beyond, and well east of the River Jordan and the Dead Sea into modern-day Jordan.<sup>116</sup> The name was revived by the Romans in the 2nd century AD in "Syria Palaestina," (Roman Palestine)<sup>117</sup> designating the southern portion of the province of Syria, and made its way thence into Arabic, where it has been used to describe the region at least since the early Islamic era.<sup>118</sup>

After Roman times the name had no official status until after World War I and the end of rule by the Turkish Ottoman Empire, when it was adopted for one of the regions mandated to Great Britain;<sup>119</sup> in addition to an area roughly comprising present-day Israel and the West Bank, the mandate included the territory east of the Jordan River now constituting the Hashimite Kingdom of Jordan, which Britain placed under an administration separate from that of Palestine immediately after receiving the mandate for the territory.

The British mandate ended in mid-May 1948,<sup>120</sup> upon which, to reiterate, the modern-day independent state of Israel was founded, which in its immediate aftermath, was invaded by several surrounding Arab states, with the ultimate objective of obliterating the newly independent Israel in its cradle. Miraculously, it failed.<sup>121</sup> Certainly up until 1948, when since Christ's time, the region was ruled by various empires including the Roman, Byzantine (Eastern Roman), various Islamic Caliphates, the Turkish Ottoman Empire from 1516-1917, before the British captured Jerusalem in late December 1917<sup>iv</sup> and occupied it until its mandate ended in May 1948.<sup>122</sup> Never at any stage, from the time of Jesus until May 1948, did anything like a truly independent Palestinian state exist. And when it did as perhaps "Philistia" at around the time of say King David, was it anything like the area encompassing modern-day Israel. Rather, more like the area of the modern-day Gaza Strip.

Moreover, even following the expulsion of Jews in the aftermath of the Roman siege of Jerusalem in 70 AD,<sup>123</sup> and the Bar Kokhba Revolt of 132-135 AD,<sup>124</sup> there still was, right up until 1948, always some sort of Jewish presence – even during the Turkish Ottoman period, where the community was comprised of descendants of Jews who had never left the Land as well as immigrants from North Africa and Europe.<sup>125</sup> iv The Battle of Jerusalem ran from 17 November – 30 December 1917 concluding with a British victory over the Turkish Ottoman Empire. Just fifteen days before this battle commenced, on November 2nd, the Balfour Declaration was made. It was a statement of British support for "the establishment in Palestine of a national home for the Jewish people." It was made in a letter from Arthur James Balfour, the British foreign secretary, to Lionel Walter Rothschild, 2nd Baron Rothschild (of Tring), a leader of the Anglo-Jewish community. [But as stated earlier in the discussion on Theodore Herzl, Lord Nathaniel Mayer Rothschild did not support the creation of the Jewish state of Israel.] Though the precise meaning of the correspondence has been disputed, its statements were generally contradictory to both the Sykes-Picot Agreement (a secret convention between Britain and France) and the Husayn-McMahon correspondence (an exchange of letters between the British high commissioner in Egypt, Sir Henry McMahon, and Husayn ibn 'Alī, then emir of Mecca), which in turn contradicted one another. In short, as the Great War raged on, the British would discover by war's end, that they had made too many promises to various powers and entities, that led to the rabid diplomatic and geopolitical mess that defined the Versailles Treaty and the war's aftermath in general. For one thing, the promise to the Arab states like Syria for example for post-Great War Independence, in return for support of the British against the Ottoman Turks, was broken.

As for the modern-day Palestinians being genetically linked to the Philistine-people, incessant and often politically charged debate rages.<sup>126</sup> One line of thought being that within two centuries, their southern European genetic footprint disappeared, being diluted by mixing in with the local Levantine gene-pool.<sup>127</sup> Proponents of this theory also point to the Ekron inscription from the Israel Museum supposedly suggesting the Philistines still remembered their roots in the Aegean centuries after they sailed east.<sup>128</sup> However, as will be discussed later, the Philistines disappear from written history during the 6th century B.C. when the Babylonian king Nebuchadnezzar II (reign ca. 605 BC – c. 562 BC) conquered the region and destroyed several cities, including Ashkelon.<sup>129</sup> Hence, the idea of the modern-day Palestinians descending from the Biblical Old Testament Philistines seems nebulous at best. Indeed, a nebulosity on par with that of the just discussed theory of the Ashkenazi Jews, comprising eighty percent of modern-day world Jewry, descending from the early Medieval Turkic Khazars.

As stated in a Reddit post about three years ago, “Palestine,” historically, is really just a name for the physical region inclusive of any or all independent polities within it. It did not have an ethnic meaning until modern times. It is sometimes easier just to say “Palestine” than to say, “Judea and Galilee and Perea and the Trans-Jordan” when those were all different countries at one time.<sup>130</sup> Dare one say, like a mini-Europe?

To reiterate, before 1948, the only possible reference to anything like an independent Palestine was the Old Testament land of Philistia, roughly corresponding in area to the modern-day Gaza Strip.<sup>v</sup> To which, it is interesting to note, that the word “Israel” is mentioned sixty times in the Quran,<sup>131</sup> but “Palestine” and the third holiest city in Islam – namely “Jerusalem”,<sup>132</sup> never,<sup>133</sup> while the two holiest cities<sup>134</sup> of “Mecca” (Makka)<sup>135</sup> and “Medina”<sup>136</sup> are. Moreover, neither is the word “Philistia” written in the Quran,<sup>137</sup> although Philistia is mentioned ten times in the Old Testament of the Bible as either the land of “Philistia” or its people the “Philistines”.<sup>138</sup> For example, from the book of Ezekiel, Chapter 25, verses 15 – 17:

15 “This is what the Sovereign Lord says: ‘Because the Philistines acted in vengeance and took revenge with malice in their hearts, and with ancient hostility sought to destroy Judah,<sup>vi</sup> 16 therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord says: I am about to stretch out my hand against the Philistines, and I will wipe out the Kerethites and destroy those remaining along the coast. 17 I will carry out great vengeance on them and punish them in my wrath. Then they will know that I am the Lord, when I take vengeance on them.’”<sup>139</sup>

Or from the book of Joel, Chapter 3, verses 4 – 6:

4 “Now what have you against me, Tyre and Sidon and all you regions of Philistia? Are you repaying me for something I have done? If you are paying me back, I will swiftly and speedily return on your own heads what you have done. 5 For you took my silver and my gold and carried off my finest treasures to your temples. 6 You sold the people of Judah and Jerusalem to the Greeks, that you might send them far from their homeland.”<sup>140</sup>

From these Old Testament quotes, it is clear that the Philistines and Israelites were ancient enemies. But after arriving in the Levant from the Aegean in the 12th century BC, when cities and civilisations in the Middle East and Greece were collapsing,<sup>141</sup> the Philistines disappear from

<sup>v</sup> Although to reiterate, one line of thought being that within two centuries, their southern European \(Aegean\) genetic Philistine footprint disappeared, being diluted by mixing in with the local Levantine gene-pool.

<sup>vi</sup> As prophesied by Ahijah (1 Kings 11:31-35), the house of Israel was divided into two kingdoms – Judah in the south with its capital Jerusalem, and Israel in the north. This division, which took place approximately 975 B.C., after the death of Solomon and during the reign of his son, Rehoboam, came about as the people revolted against heavy taxes levied by Solomon and Rehoboam. For more details, see the article Israel divided into two kingdoms at <https://www.thechurchnews.com/1994/7/16/23256798/israel-divided-into-two-kingdoms> written history during the 6th century B.C. when the Babylonian king Nebuchadnezzar II (reign ca. 605 BC – c. 562 BC) conquered the region and destroyed several cities, including Ashkelon.<sup>142</sup>

Much of what we know about the Philistines comes from Egyptian and Assyrian texts as well as the stories told in the Hebrew Bible. The Book of Joshua claims that the cities of Ashkelon, Gaza, Ashdod, Gath and Ekron were controlled by the Philistines about 3,000 years ago.<sup>143</sup> This is because the Philistines themselves left no texts and, as such, much of what we know about them comes from the people they encountered. These texts often describe them negatively and today the name “Philistine” is sometimes used to describe someone who is warlike or who doesn’t appreciate art or culture.<sup>144</sup>

Hence, it has been postulated, that the Romans, following their mass evictions of Jews in the wake of 70 AD siege of Jerusalem<sup>145</sup> and the Bar Kokhba Revolt of 132-135 AD,<sup>146</sup> to spite the troublesome Jews, adopted Syria Palaestina, (Roman Palestine) as the name of what had been the Roman province of Judea,<sup>147</sup> after two ancient kingdoms Assyria and Philistine, both ancient mortal enemies of the Jews, and both of which have long since died out.<sup>148</sup> To reiterate, this in spite of the fact, that the Philistines had disappeared from historical written record about six to seven centuries earlier, when the Babylonian king Nebuchadnezzar II (reign ca. 605 BC – c. 562 BC) conquered the region and destroyed several cities, including Ashkelon.<sup>149</sup> This Roman province had nothing to do with the modern day Palestinian state, either geographically or ethnically.<sup>150</sup>

To which, coupled with no genetic link it seems between the ancient Philistines and modern-day Palestinians,<sup>151</sup> unlike the definitive genetic links established between ancient Jews of around the time of the 70 AD Jerusalem siege and modern-day Jews, as documented in the aforementioned 2010 study by the The American Society of Human Genetics,<sup>152</sup> begs the question; “Where are modern-day Palestinians from and when did they arrive?”

Well, to begin with, the modern-day Palestinians are a mixed people of whom the majority descend from recent economic migrants, who flocked to the area between 1850 and 1950. A few Muslim families trace their history to the Arab conquest of Jerusalem in the 7th century, and some Jewish and Christian families go even back further. However, very few Palestinian Arabs are indigenous<sup>153</sup> – Arabs are not indigenous to the Israel and unsurprisingly, they originated from Arabia before they arrived in the Israel with the Muslim conquests of the 7th century,<sup>154</sup> taking over from the rule of the Byzantine (Eastern Roman) Empire.

To reiterate as stated earlier, certainly up until 1948, when since Christ’s time, the region was ruled by various empires including the Roman, Byzantine (Eastern Roman), various Islamic Caliphates, the Turkish Ottoman Empire from 1516-1917, before the British captured Jerusalem in late December 1917<sup>vii</sup> and occupied it until its mandate ended in May 1948.<sup>155</sup> Never at any stage, from the time of Jesus until May 1948, did anything like a truly independent Palestinian state exist. And when it did as perhaps the land of “Philistia” of the Aegean-descended Philistines, at around the time of say King David, was it anything like the area encompassing modern-day Israel. Rather, more like the area of the modern-day Gaza Strip.

Moreover, there does not appear to be any genetic link between the Philistines of King David’s time and the modern-day Palestinians. Furthermore, prominent members of the Palestinian Liberation Organisation – PLO, have admitted that the state of “Palestine” and its “Palestinian” people were indeed, a political construct specifically designed to undermine the modern-day state of Israel. To begin with, Zuheir Mohsen; the Military Department head of the PLO<sup>156</sup> from 1971 to 1979,<sup>157</sup> in an interview with the Dutch newspaper Trouw, on March 31st, 1977,<sup>158</sup> stated:

“There are no differences between Jordanians, Palestinians, Syrians, and Lebanese. We are all part of one nation. It is only for political reasons that we carefully underline our Palestinian identity.... yes, the existence of a separate Palestinian identity serves only tactical purposes. The founding of a Palestinian state is a new tool in the continuing battle against Israel.”<sup>159</sup>

Zuheir Mohsen was born in 1936 in Tulkarm of then British mandated Palestine in the modern-day West Bank. He was assassinated on July 26th, 1979, in Nice, France; shot in the head by gunmen on his way home from the Palm Beach Casino in Cannes.<sup>160</sup> Middle Eastern observers pointing the finger at the Israeli Mossad.<sup>161</sup> Mohsen was a Palestinian nationalist who was a leader of the pro-Syrian guerrilla organisation al-Šā‘iqah and as well, to reiterate, head of the Military Department of the Palestine Liberation Organisation (PLO). Suggestions for other entities behind his assassination, include Abu Nidal,<sup>162</sup> a Palestinian political leader, mercenary, and the founder of Fatah - The Revolutionary Council<sup>163</sup> and Western intelligence services. After Mohsen’s death, al-Sa’iqa’s importance dwindled, and Syria partially turned towards other Palestinian movements, such as PFLP-GC (The Popular Front for the Liberation of Palestine – General Command) and Fatah al-Intifada.<sup>164</sup>

It has been claimed that Yasser Arafat, in the early 1960s, amidst the Kremlin devised Operation SIG, a disinformation campaign intended “to turn the whole Islamic world against Israel and the U.S.”<sup>165</sup> as indeed discussed earlier in the aforementioned book Disinformation by Ion Michal Pacepa, stated:

“The Palestinian people have no national identity. I, Yasser Arafat, man of destiny, will give them that identity through conflict with Israel.”<sup>166</sup>

This quote is claimed to have been sourced from the 1989 book Arafat, a Political Biography by Alan Hart,<sup>167</sup> but the presence of this quote in this book, has not been verified. That said, as discussed earlier, among naive Western nations by the 1970s, Ceaușescu had already established himself as the most favoured of all Communist Eastern-bloc tyrants, due to a superficial discord with some aspects of Soviet foreign policy. Sniffing a potential Nobel Peace Prize with Arafat, Ceaușescu jumped at the chance in 1978 to persuade the “transformation” of Arafat from terrorist to peacemaker.

At first, Arafat was in a stunned state of disbelief as he exploded. “But we are a revolution!” and “We were born a revolution and will remain a revolution” as he postulated that Palestinians lacked the tradition, unity and discipline to become a formal state. [Because the idea of a formal Palestinian nation is merely a political instrument to undermine Israel.] That was something for future generation.<sup>168</sup> That all governments, even communist ones, were hindered by laws and international agreements, and was not interested to place any laws or other obstacles in the way of the Palestinian struggle to eradicate the state of Israel. Such was quoted by Romanian Major General Ion Michal Pacepa, who in 1978, just months after Ceaușescu's meeting with Arafat, became the highest ranking Eastern-bloc defector to the West, in his book Disinformation. And in 1994, Arafat indeed won his Nobel Peace Prize, in convincing a naive West of his transformation from terrorist to "peacemaker". However, Pacepa's defection it seems, dashed Ceaușescu's hopes for it.

And as a penultimate resounding example of Arab denunciation of Palestinian nationhood, is from none other than the former Arab MK (Member of the Knesset – Israeli Parliament<sup>viii</sup>) Azmi Bishara, who fled Israel to avoid investigation of alleged acts of treason during the 2006 Lebanon War.<sup>169</sup> On a 1994 Channel 2 program, he astounded his Israeli co-participants with the following assertion:

"Well, I don't think there is a Palestinian nation at all. I think there is an Arab nation. I always thought so...I do not think there is a Palestinian nation. I think it's a colonialist invention – Palestinian nation. When were there any Palestinians? Where did it come from? Indeed when? Indeed where?"<sup>170</sup>

And ultimately, from no less than the late Jordanian King Hussein bin Talal from 1952 until his death in 1999,<sup>171</sup> as he proclaimed at the Arab League summit in 1987 in the Jordanian capital of Amman:

"The appearance of the Palestinian national personality comes as an answer to Israel's claim that Palestine is Jewish."<sup>172</sup>

As Martin Sherman<sup>ix</sup> put it:

"King Hussein of Jordan conceded that Palestinian identity was merely a response to Jewish national claims and was not driven by any authentic endogenic sentiment of uniqueness."<sup>173</sup>
... From this, we are compelled to conclude that, if there were no Jewish claims to "Palestine," there would be no Palestinian Arab claims. Therefore, these claims are merely a derivative of Jewish claims, without which they would not exist.<sup>174</sup>

Conversely, unlike the relatively recent and contrived identity of Palestine and the Palestinians, is it not worth pondering, how remarkable it is, that after almost two millennia of displacement and trauma, the Jewish culture, religion and identity has persisted, when almost any other, would have ceased to exist? Certainly, an inexorably disturbing, nagging and annoying question for any raving anti-Semite. Not the least of which being, those chanting "gas the Jews" at Australia's Sydney Opera House just a day or two in the wake of the horrors of October 7th 2023.<sup>175</sup>

Hence, it is at this point, that the opportunity for a poignant segue, explaining the presence of the name "George Soros" in the title of this essay has presented itself. Namely, that since 2016, groups behind the Israel-bashing protests backing the October 7th 2023 Hamas attacks, have received in excess of $16 million from the radical-left Jewish-Hungarian-American Billionaire and Globalist George Soros,<sup>176</sup> of whom, many anti-Semites, due to Soros' Jewish heritage, perceive of him being a staunch pro-Zionist. The actions however of Soros, as will be discussed, clearly suggest otherwise.

Born in Hungary in 1930, Soros lived through the Nazi occupation of 1944–1945, which resulted in the murder of over 500,000 Hungarian Jews. His own Jewish family survived by securing false identity papers, concealing their backgrounds, and as claimed on his Open Society Foundations website biography – helping others do the same. Soros later recalled that “not only did we survive, but we managed to help others.”<sup>177</sup>

As the Communists consolidated power in Hungary after the war, Soros left Budapest in 1947 for London, working part-time as a railway porter and as a night-club waiter to support his studies at the London School of Economics. In 1956, he emigrated to the United States, entering the world of finance and investments, where he made his fortune. In 1970, he launched his own hedge fund and went on to become one of the most successful investors in the history of the United States.<sup>178</sup>

George Soros used his fortune to create the Open Society Foundations – a network of foundations, partners, and projects in more than 120 countries. The Open Societies Foundations name and work reflect the influence on Soros’s thinking of the philosophy of Karl Popper, which Soros first encountered at the London School of Economics. In his book Open Society and Its Enemies, Popper argues that no philosophy or ideology is the final arbiter of truth, and that societies can only flourish when they allow for democratic governance, freedom of expression, and respect for individual rights—an approach, ostensibly at least, at the core of the Open Society Foundations’ work.

The truth however, about the ostensible philanthropist George Soros, [remember; Bill Gates with his “vaccines” is a “philanthropist”!!] is not so idealistic as his Open Societies web page biography frames it. For example, as stated by Honourable MARK E. SOUDER of Indiana in the U.S. House of representatives on Thursday, September 28, 2006,<sup>179</sup> recounting George Soros being interviewed by Mr Kroft of U.S. 60 Minutes on December 20, 1998:

SOROS: “I am basically there to make money. I cannot and do not look at the social consequences of what I do.”

SOUDER: “He can move world financial markets simply by voicing an opinion or destabilize a government by buying and selling its currency . . . [W]hen he saw cracks in the Asia boom, he began selling the currency in Thailand. Traders in Hong Kong followed suit, triggering a financial crisis that plunged much of Asia into a depression.”

SOROS: “I don’t feel guilty. Because I’m engaged in an amoral activity which is not meant to have anything to do with guilt.”

And when Soros was convicted of Insider-Trading, ordered to Pay $2.8 million.

SOUDER: “George Soros’s bid to overturn an insider-trading conviction has been rejected by France’s highest appeals court, ending the billionaire’s fight to erase a legal stain on his 40-year investing career. The Court of Cassation, the tribunal of last resort in France, ended its review of a March 2005 judgment that Soros broke insider-trading laws when he bought Societe Generale SA shares in 1988 with the knowledge that the bank might be a takeover target.

Soros Is the Primary Financier of Left-Wing Causes. Tax records of Soros’ Open Society Institute show contributions of: $4.41 million to the American Civil Liberties Union and its state affiliates; $500,000 to the Pro-Choice Education Project to launch a (pro-abortion rights) “public education and media strategy;” $100,000 to Catholics for a Free Choice, an allegedly Catholic group that advocates for abortion rights; $100,000 to the Death Penalty Information Center, an organisation that works against capital punishment; $100,000 to the Pennsylvania Coalition to Save Lives Now “to support needle exchange programs,” $80,000 over three years to the Gay Straight Alliance Network, to promote "a traveling photo documentary exhibit by lesbian, gay, transgender, queer and questioning youth;" $35,000 to the Abortion Access Project." (Jeff Johnson, George Soros $30M Welfare Check, CNSNews.com, April 26, 2005).

When the Nazis occupied Budapest in 1944, George Soros' father was a successful lawyer. He lived on an island in the Danube and liked to commute to work in a rowboat. But knowing there were problems ahead for the Jews, he decided to split his family up. He bought them forged papers and he bribed a government official to take 14-year-old George Soros in and swear that he was his Christian godson. But survival carried a heavy price tag. While hundreds of thousands of Hungarian Jews were being shipped off to the death camps, George Soros accompanied his phony godfather on his appointed rounds, confiscating property from the Jews.<sup>180</sup>

To which Soros, as stated in his interview by Mr Kroft of U.S. 60 Minutes on December 20, 1998, felt no sense of guilt.

But the destructive leftist WOKE agenda of Soros does not end there. In early August 2022, Soros affirmed he would not stop backing woke District Attorneys who refuse to prosecute black and other minority offenders despite urban crime spikes. Soros wrote that the agenda pushed by "top prosecutors" like Manhattan DA and Trump prosecutor Alvin Bragg, in spite of sky-rocketing crime, was both "popular" and "effective."<sup>181</sup> Such is Soros WOKE philanthropy!

But in a December 10th 2023 article, the DC Daily Journal reported George Soros' shocking ties to terrorism revealed in bombshell report.<sup>182</sup> According to a watchdog group, a foundation that has received money from George Soros has been funding groups that have held pro-Palestinian rallies.

Tides Foundation, a nonprofit established in San Francisco, has received approximately $22 million in donations for various causes. According to the Capital Research Center, the Tides Foundation then gave millions to Leftist organizations that all planned pro-Palestinian protests.

- 1) $650,000 to [Marxist-anti-Zionist]<sup>183</sup> Jewish Voice for Peace – JVP
- 2) $710,000 to Adalah Justice Project, a pro-Palestinian group.<sup>184</sup>
- 3) $86,000 to IfNotNow<sup>185</sup> – like JVP, another Marxist-anti-Zionist Jewish activist group
- 4) $38,000 to the progressive Center for Constitutional Rights
- 5) $600,000 to the Mass Liberation Project, a progressive organisation working to "end mass incarceration and abolish the criminal legal system."<sup>186</sup>
- 6) $132,000 to the WESPAC Foundation,<sup>187</sup> the group over Students for Justice in Palestine.<sup>188</sup>

The Mass Liberation Project endorses left-leaning candidates running for local and state offices through its social media accounts. The Project supports the Marxist Black Lives Matter (BLM) movement, which is devoted to the destruction of the traditional nuclear family,<sup>189</sup> of which has proven devastating to black communities and encourages its followers to participate in Black Lives Matter protests and vote for left-of-centre candidates who support the movement.<sup>190</sup>

The Arizona chapter of the Mass Liberation Project, which is a direct associate of the Tides Foundation, has accused the U.S. administration of "ethnic cleansing of Palestinian people," while also praising Hamas. "We acknowledge Hamas as a legitimate political actor and democratically elected Gazan resistance working to free Palestinian people," a page on the Mass Liberation Project's Arizona chapter's website states:

"We unequivocally support Palestine's demands and acknowledge Operation Al-Aqsa Flood [October 7th Hamas perpetrated massacre<sup>191</sup>] as a necessary step to secure Palestine's freedom.

There are not two sides to genocide. As Palestinian people resist ethnic cleansing they must have unwavering global support.”<sup>192</sup>

Their website also states:

“We wholeheartedly reject the false Zionist narrative that criticism of Israel is anti-Semitism... We will not be bribed or extorted by funders or philanthropy who use anti-BDS<sup>x</sup> clauses to silence our movement’s solidarity with Palestine.”<sup>193</sup>

and ...

“We do not condemn Gazan resistance.”

According to the U.S. Capitol Police, roughly 300 persons were arrested on October 18th<sup>194</sup> during a protest inside the U.S. Capitol rotunda by JVP – Jewish Voice for Peace<sup>195</sup> and IfNotNow.<sup>196</sup> Hmm ... I bet they will not suffer the same harsh treatment the J6ers received – such as solitary confinement for 23 hours a day.<sup>197</sup>

“From the river to the sea, Palestine will be free!”<sup>203</sup>

Albeit, “river to the sea” in its original Arabic: [Like Hebrew, Arabic reads from right to left. Which it seems, is the case for Ancient languages written before paper was invented.]<sup>205</sup>

“عاشت فلسطين حرة عربية من نهرها لبحرها!”<sup>206</sup>

“Eashat filastin huratan earabiatan min nahriha libahriha!”

Directly translates to:

“Long live free, Arab Palestine from its river to its sea!”<sup>207</sup>

To which, from February 14th, 2006, it’s worth noting the key fundamental guiding principle of “Jihad” (“Holy” War) in “The Covenant Of The Islamic Resistance Movement – Hamas” – more commonly known as the Hamas Charter:

“There is no solution to the Palestinian problem except by jihad.”<sup>208</sup>

AND ...

“Jihad for the Liberation of Palestine is a Personal Duty”<sup>209</sup>

To which Article Fifteen proclaims:

“The day the enemies conquer some part of the Muslim land, jihad becomes a personal duty of every Muslim. In the face of the Jewish occupation of Palestine, it is necessary to raise the banner of jihad. This requires the propagation of Islamic consciousness among the masses, locally [in Palestine], in the Arab world and in the Islamic world. It is necessary to instil the spirit of jihad in the nation, engage the enemies and join the ranks of the jihad fighters.

The indoctrination campaign must involve ulama, educators, teachers and information and media experts, as well as all intellectuals, especially the young people and the sheikhs of Islamic movements.”<sup>210</sup> [Outside support for this indoctrination will be discussed later. Can you guess from whom?]

Hence, the pro-Hamas protest catch cry of essentially “freedom from the river to the sea” chanted by adults, such as the FRSO Minneapolis public school teacher Meredith Aby-Keirstead<sup>211</sup> and children alike, who in all likelihood for the latter, with preference given to Cultural neo-Marxist WOKE indoctrinated education, including Catastrophic Climate Change “Science,”<sup>xii</sup> given Greta Thunberg’s aforementioned taking up “From the river to the sea, Palestine will be free”,<sup>xiii</sup> or the almost explicit approval of jihad in concert with ethnic cleansing of Jews with “Long live free, Arab Palestine from its river to its sea!”<sup>212</sup> rather than the fundamentals of reading, writing, maths, geography and critical thinking, have never heard of the River Jordan and at best, barely conceived of the Mediterranean Sea! Moreover, to further highlight what Vladimir Lenin dubbed “useful idiots” in the West, this time in sycophantic servitude to the Hamas cause, the Charter of Hamas, with prodigious reference to jihad, has no reference to being “free” or “freedom” in general.<sup>213</sup>

Admittedly, the Charter about three-quarters of the way through, does state:

“The Islamic Resistance Movement is a humane movement which respects human rights and is committed to the Islamic tolerance towards the followers of the other religions. It is hostile only to those among them who display hostility towards it or stand in its way, hampering its activities and foiling its efforts. Under the wing of Islam, the followers of the three religions - Islam, Christianity and Judaism - can co-exist in security and safety. It is only under the wing of Islam that safety and security prevail.”

However, aside from its original Arabic catch cry “Long live free, Arab Palestine from its river to its sea!”<sup>214</sup> this is also contradicted at the beginning of its charter:

“You are the best nation that has been brought out for mankind. You command good and forbid evil and believe in Allah. If only the people of the Book [i.e., Jews and Christians] had believed, it would have been well for them. Some of them believe, but most of them are iniquitous. They will never be able to do you serious harm, they will only be an annoyance. If they fight you, they will turn their backs and flee, and will not be succoured. Humiliation is their lot wherever they may be, except where they are saved from it by a bond with Allah or by a bond with men. They incurred upon themselves Allah's wrath, and wretchedness is their lot, because they denied Allah's signs and wrongfully killed the prophets, and because they disobeyed and transgressed. (Koran, 3:110-112).

Israel will exist, and will continue to exist, until Islam abolishes it, as it abolished that which was before it. [From the words of] The martyr, Imam Hasan al-Banna', Allah's mercy be upon him.<sup>215</sup>

To which my bold emphasis ...

“Humiliation is their lot wherever they may be, except where they are saved from it by a bond with Allah or by a bond with men.”<sup>216</sup>

... is indicative of the mass persecution of Christians in the Middle East,<sup>217</sup> Pakistan and Africa, including the late December 2023 Muslim perpetrated massacre of Christians in Nigeria,<sup>218</sup> to which our ultra-corrupt global media's silence, in abject fear of Islam, or WOKE accusations of Islamophobia, is deafening.

As is the hypocrisy of useful idiot WOKE pro-Hamas protesters as they scream “apartheid” in Israel, but ignore the Islamic perpetrated apartheid of Coptic Christians in Egypt.<sup>219</sup> Not the least of which WOKE useful idiot mentality being, those professing themselves as “Queers for Palestine!!” In Gaza, their lives would be in danger,<sup>220</sup> but not in Israel! Moreover perhaps, the crowning contradiction of the Hamas charter, is their mention of Jerusalem's Al-Aqsa mosque, one of Islam's so-called holiest of holies,<sup>221</sup> when to reiterate, along with Palestine, is never mentioned in the Quran.<sup>222</sup>

The pro-Hamas Birzeit University<sup>226</sup> is located in the Palestinian West Bank,<sup>227</sup> and Rinaud Abdullah, while at the time of the publishing of his paper, held a George Soros sponsored Open Society Fellowship at Birzeit University, is now the Chairperson for the University's Department of Law.<sup>228</sup>

In the paper, Abdullah documents what he perceives as Israeli-perpetrated apartheid against Palestinians. However, the Israeli-Arab, yes I repeat, the Israeli-Arab Yoseph Haddad, CEO of Together – Vouch For Each Other,<sup>229</sup> an organisation bridging the gap between the Arab sector of Israeli society with Israeli society as a whole, in a five-and-a-half-minute presentation on the Prager Univeristy YouTube channel,<sup>230</sup> presents an array of compelling evidence contrary to the line of Rinaud Abdullah – and indeed, as stated on placards of pro-Hamas-Soros-funded protests globally.

Yoseph Haddad, while serving in the IDF – Israeli Defence Force on a dangerous mission, realised he lost his foot after collapsing under artillery fire. But, when he later woke up in hospital, using every ounce of courage he had to overcome his perceived horror to look again back down his leg, he found it was miraculously reattached! When asked;

“Yoseph, how can you fight for the IDF?”

Yoseph replies;

“It’s simple. It’s not the Jewish Defence Forces, its the Israeli Defence Forces. ... And, I am an Israeli.”

In his commentary, Yoseph then asks:

“Are you surprised? If so, I don’t blame you. You probably get your news about Israel from well ... the ‘media’.”

To which, he elucidates how “media” amplify extremism and conflict because it sells, while reconciliation doesn’t. Stereotypes make for simple stories that are well ... too simple. For one thing, we are told that everyone living in Israel defines themselves as Israelis and Palestinians. However, this division as reported by media is false.

According to a 2020 poll, just 7% of Arabs living in Israel self-identify as Palestinian, while over ten times that number – 74% self-identify as either Israeli-Arab or just plain Israeli.<sup>231</sup> This is just one amongst a vast array of examples of how much of what you hear about Israel, is distorted, and thus, does not match the facts.

In the U.S., Jews are disproportionately represented in the medical profession, as they are indeed in the awarding of Nobel Prize Laureates since 1905.<sup>232</sup> This is remarkable, given the population of global Jewry in early September 2021, just being 15.2 million.<sup>233</sup> However, in Israel, Arabs are disproportionately represented in the medical profession. Arabs comprise 20% of Israel’s population but 30% of Israel’s physicians, and 35% of its pharmacists.<sup>234</sup> Moreover, the appointed chairman of the largest bank in Israel in 2019, Dr. Samer Haj-Yehia,<sup>235</sup> was Arab.

In an apartheid state, some get to vote, and some don’t. In an apartheid state, some get an education and some don’t. However, in Israel, Arabs vote, and in 2021, for the first time in modern Israel’s history, Arab parliament members had a major say on whether a government is formed and who indeed would form such a government. Moreover, in Israel, the enrolment of Arab students in higher education is exploding, more than doubling between 2008 and 2018.<sup>236</sup> And per capita, Arab-Israeli Christians outpace Israeli-Jews in higher education degrees.

Olga Meshoe, a black South African human rights activist, says explicitly:

“You will not find apartheid in the state of Israel.”<sup>237</sup>

Olga elucidates that the BDS movement advocating the Boycotting, Divestment and Sanctioning of Israel, is a slick propaganda effort built on lies. Having lived in South Africa, and spent a fair amount of time in Israel, she is more than qualified to make this assessment, unlike placard waving ignorant Soros-funded leftist-dupes in the West. In particular, pro-COVID-jab leftist-indoctrinated Catastrophic Climate Change Scam<sup>xiv</sup> Greta Thunberg<sup>xv</sup> wannabe high school students skipping school to bellow the pro-Hamas chant.

Olga highlighted how in apartheid South Africa, black people were separated at every level from education to drinking fountains. Blacks couldn't vote, couldn't own land, and could not live next to or use the same transportation system as whites. Her grandfather told her of the story of a little white boy kicking and humiliating him in public, and all he could do, was to say:

“Please stop that little white boss.”<sup>238</sup>

However, NOT in Israel! Israeli-Arabs have the same rights as Israeli-Jews. Israeli-Arabs are treated the same in hospitals, study in the same schools, travel in the same buses, and both serve in the Israeli military.<sup>239</sup> Although, in the latter respect, as stated by the Israeli-Arab-Muslim Mohammad Kabiya, who has served in the IDF, Israeli-Jews are compelled to serve time in the Israeli military, but NOT Israeli-Arabs.<sup>240</sup> As Mohammad puts it:

Other countries, not so free and diverse like my own country, [Israel – of which he is prepared to die for.] call for my country's destruction.<sup>241</sup> [For example, as already discussed; the Islamic Fundamentalist state of Iran, which just so happens to formally recognise child brides.]<sup>xvi</sup>

Why does Olga Meshoe, a black South African human rights activist, speak up for Israel? The state branded as being apartheid by pro-COVID-jab leftist-indoctrinated Catastrophic Climate Change Scam Greta Thunberg<sup>xvii</sup> wannabe high school students, skipping school to bellow the pro-Hamas-terrorist chant.

Well aside from alluding to the state of apartheid that effectively exists in the Arab state of Egypt, in regard to the Coptic Christians,<sup>242</sup> and likewise in Iraq for their Christians,<sup>243</sup> it is because, as she boldly proclaims, lies empower evil!<sup>244</sup> Lies about blacks empowered apartheid in South Africa, and lies about the Jews made the Holocaust possible. And right now, lies about the Jews, has led to a staggering multi-fold increase in acts of anti-Semitism, where on many Western university campuses, Jewish students fear for their lives,<sup>245</sup> and Soros-funded-pro-Hamas-terrorist rallies, such as the early October 2023 Sydney Opera House rally, in a scene reminiscent of the early 1930s crumbling Weimar Germany, calling for the gassing of the Jews!<sup>246</sup> Yet, we have the laughing hyena Kamala Harris, presently passing for a legitimately elected U.S. vice-President,<sup>xviii</sup> in an early November 2023 tweet, calling for measures to address not the staggering rise in anti-Semitism, but rather, her regime's agenda-perceived “Islamophobia”.<sup>247</sup>

To which has been exposed the inexorable hypocrisy of the fraudulently elected Obama-cardboard-cut-out Biden-Harris DC Sewer<sup>xix</sup> Junta. Just months before writing, anyone calling for “gas the Jews” would be facing arrest. However, in the wake of October 7th, as it was used to vilify J6ers, MAGA supporters and anti-COVID-jabbers, the righteous vilification of bigoted catch cries such as “gas the Jews” and anti-Semitism in general, no longer serves the agenda of the radical-left. Hence, the quintessential hypocrisy of the radical-left legitimisation of “gas the Jews” in the wake of xix Washington DC has been dubbed the swamp. However, as former Republican Arkansas Governor Mike Huckabee put it, swamps have ecological value, and thus the more appropriate description of DC, is the sewer. October 7th. For them, October 7th has flipped on its head, the requirements of Cultural neo-Marxist WOKE “revolutionary truth.” To put it crudely, the pecking order of the Jews on the Cultural neo-Marxist WOKE Totem Pole, has plummeted. And clearly, radical-Islam is at or bordering its zenith.

In the 1917 Bolshevik October Revolution, given the Tsarist-perpetrated pogroms inflicted upon the Jews,<sup>248</sup> Jews were at that time, useful to the Marxist agenda. However, a century and six years later in the wake of October 7th, 2023, the WOKE incarnation of Marxism, designed specifically to undermine Western civilisation, has discarded them as persona-non-grata. And indeed for those presently perceiving of themselves at or near the pinnacle of the WOKE Totem Pole, you too, at any time, can suffer likewise ignominious demotion, if it suddenly aligns with the prevailing agenda of “revolutionary truth”. Clearly, unlike preceding October 7th, 2023, given for one thing, the early October 2023 Sydney Opera House pro-Hamas rally, the chilling anti-Semitic catch-cry of “gas the Jews” has been made to align with the newly prevalent “revolutionary truth”.

But not to be outdone in the WOKE hypocrisy and revolutionary truth stakes, of whom the later to be mentioned Catholic US-Canadian Life Site News wrote a most sycophantically glowing piece in support of, enters one of the most corrupt, oppressive and incompetent regimes on the planet; namely the Marxist African National Congress (ANC) of South Africa.

In its inexorable hypocrisy, as a distraction from its litany of ills, the ANC regime of South Africa, targets Israel internationally on charges of genocide. As the British journalist Brendan O’Neill put it:

“Then there’s South Africa, the nation that brought the case against Israel. Its imperious judges reeled off charge after charge against the Jewish State at the ICJ this week. You’ll forgive my gagging. ANC-run South Africa is one of the most corrupt regimes in the world. The heirs to Mandela have catastrophically failed to make good his promise of a new, fair nation. South Africa under their rule has some of the highest rates of murder and rape in the world. Poverty is rampant. The ANC has massacred black workers who were merely campaigning for better pay. It failed to counter murderous pogroms against Zimbabwean immigrants. It presides over a country where, for millions, life is brutish and short. Perhaps it should save some of the fashionable [WOKE] sympathy it feels for the people of Gaza for its own long-suffering citizens.”<sup>249</sup>

Moreover, here is the ultimate irony to the South African ANC’s trumped up charge against Israel, in the Statement by concerned Christians in response to the case launched by South Africa against Israel in the ICJ signed by dozens of South African Christian groups<sup>250</sup> as reported in the South African Christian news outlet Gateway News:

“The absence of a public condemnation from South Africa regarding Hamas’s actions in Gaza, raises significant concerns. This silence is more conspicuous given the recent hosting of a delegation from Iran and Hamas in South Africa. Such actions could be interpreted as direct support to Hamas’s tactics, including using civilians as human shields and diverting aid for military purposes and the building of tunnels, rather than humanitarian relief sent to the Palestinian people, which was intercepted by Hamas. This stance raises questions about South Africa’s position on these critical human rights issues and its role in international diplomacy. Our government’s lead counsel in the case, is a trustee of an International NGO, ‘Lawyers for Palestine’, which appears to be the source of much of their application.”<sup>251</sup>

Earlier, I discussed how in September 2000, Yasser Arafat launched a second intifada. By June 2002, there was already a recorded 13,494 incidents of Palestinian terrorism against Israelis in which more than 600 civilians were killed. Six months later, the number of Israeli civilians killed by the PLO's "martyrs" (NOTE: Christian martyrs never but never, take the lives of others with them!) exceeded 700.<sup>252</sup>

In the Prager U video, Mohammad Kabiya discussed how in early 2002, when he was just a teenager, Palestinian suicide bombers were blowing up Israeli civilians – a danger naturally to Arabs and Jews alike.<sup>253</sup> That is when, akin to the situation in Gaza today, Israeli troops entered the West Bank to root out the suicide bombers at their source in Operation Defensive Shield.<sup>254</sup> As a result, many Palestinians were killed. Of course, I can hear today's Soros-funded-pro-Hamas-protesters bellowing; "GENOCIDE" against the Israelis, but of course, in another embodiment of quintessential leftist hypocrisy, not against Palestinian suicide bombers.

Operation Defensive Shield was launched on March 29th, 2002 and concluded on May 10th. Though "Defensive Shield" did not stop all future terrorist attacks from the West Bank, it was a decisive turning point in the Palestinian Al-Aqsa Intifada and it still remains one of the best examples of counter-insurgency warfare by any army in modern times.<sup>255</sup> To which it is worth noting; "Jenin: A Massacre That Wasn't".<sup>256</sup>

According to Israeli authorities, Jenin was the central base for Palestinian terror groups in the West Bank, including Palestinian Islamic Jihad, Al-Aqsa Martyrs Brigades, and Hamas, and served as the launchpad for terror attacks in Israel. 23 of the 60 suicide bombers that attacked Israel in 2002 were attributed to Palestinian terrorists hailing from Jenin.

Given what I just discussed, it should not be surprising that most of the international reporting on the fierce battle in Jenin focused on the accusations that the IDF had led a brutal massacre of hundreds of Palestinian civilians, and then quickly buried them in mass graves. The truth, however, was far from removed from what these charges claimed.<sup>257</sup>

As in the other cities of the West Bank, the IDF sent infantry forces into Jenin's refugee camps in order to weed out and destroy the terror infrastructure from the ground instead of doing so from the air. What waited for the soldiers inside the camp was approximately 200 heavily armed terrorists who had literally booby-trapped the entire city, placing their own neighbors and Palestinian civilians directly in harm's way.<sup>258</sup> [That is why claims of Hamas in Gaza today using civilians as humans shields should NOT be blithely dismissed.]

Overall, 23 Israeli soldiers were killed in the battle for Jenin and another 50 were wounded. Initially, the Palestinian government and numerous NGOs reported that hundreds of Palestinians had been killed. Eventually, however, both Human Rights Watch and the United Nations published reports that showed only about 52 to 56 Palestinians were killed, of whom about half or more were terrorists. The UN also ruled out that a massacre occurred.<sup>259</sup>

While 2003 had a total of 25 executed suicide bombings in comparison to 56 in 2002, the main difference was the number of attacks which did not come to realisation (184) either due to Israeli interception or problems in the execution. 2003 also saw a 35 percent drop in the number of fatalities from 220 deaths in 2002 to 142 deaths resulting from suicide bombings.<sup>260</sup>

Tying in today with the distorted international reporting in Jenin in 2002, is the claim that early on in the bombing of Gaza around mid-October, is the October 18th, 2023 New York Post report titled: Media suckered by Hamas' hospital lie must stop trusting terrorists.<sup>261</sup> Quoting this article:

“The terror group [ Hamas ] claimed Israel had levelled Al-Ahli Arab hospital with an airstrike, eliciting outrage from around the world as its allies screamed war crime and the media rushed to prop up Hamas’ story.”<sup>xx</sup>

Now, after a frenzied stretch of Israel-blaming, hard evidence shows that

- 1) the hospital was not leveled but just had its parking lot hit by a rocket and
- 2) the rocket was fired by Palestinian Islamic Jihad, not Israel.

But don’t take our word for it! The IDF has released audio of two Hamas operatives saying, quite literally, that the rocket is “from us” (i.e. Islamist combatants trying to destroy Israel).

We’re not sure why any reputable journo ever believed Hamas in the first place.

This is a paramilitary terror group that beheads babies, rapes women and massacres peaceful ravers.<sup>xxi</sup>

It also regularly sees its own rockets and missiles fall short and kill Gazans.”<sup>262</sup>

Yet, in an October 18th tweet, the same day as the New York Post article debunking the Hamas claim,<sup>263</sup> radical-left-pro-Hamas Democrat House Representative for Michigan Rashida Tlaib stated:

“Israel just bombed the Baptist Hospital killing 500 Palestinians (doctors, children, patients) just like that.

this is what happens when you refuse to facilitate a ceasefire & help de-escalate.

Your war and destruction only approach has opened my eyes and many Palestinian Americans and Muslims Americans like me. We will remember where you stood.”<sup>264</sup>

And Rashida, I will indeed remember where you stand! Namely, on the side of your leftist ilk’s “Revolutionary Red-Green (Marxist-Islamist) Axis of truth.” Like any good Marxist, the “truth” is whatever version serves the revolution.

For the ilk of Rashida Tlaib and her compatriot radical-left Soros funded pro-Hamas protesters, the notion of Israelis living on stolen Palestinian land is banged-on ad-infinitum. For one thing, the Palestinians displaced during the 1948 Arab-Israeli war. However, what the radical-left ilk do not mention, as already discussed, is that Israel, in an emphatic violation of UN Resolution 181, was invaded by several surrounding Arab states upon Israel’s declaration of Independence in mid-May 1948. Incredibly, Israel survived and the Arabs ended up with far less land than if they accepted the terms of UN Resolution 181. Invariably, Palestinians were displaced from their homes, but that is the gamble the invading Arab countries took in assuming they would obliterate the newly born Israel in its cradle.

CAUTION: THIS FOOTAGE IS EXTREMELY DISTURBING!

For example, there is the late-November 2023 LA Times opinion piece and story of the Palestinian American Ghassan Bisharat; a retired assistant professor of political science at Cal State Los Angeles and a former high school social science teacher. He tells the story of his parents as Palestinian refugees who managed to rent an apartment in the city of Nazareth after their village, Ma'Alool, 10 miles [16 Km] to the west, was destroyed by the advancing Israeli army in 1948. His father, a cobbler, took his trade to Nazareth's historic bazaar.<sup>265</sup>

Yet, in spite of this, Ghassan recounted the story of his father routinely asking him to carry the grocery bags of elderly women to the bus station at least a quarter of a mile [400 metres] away from his shop. Ghassan did not mind doing so until the day his father asked him to carry them for a Jewish lady who lived in upper Nazareth. Ghassan's feelings and counter-argument of his father he summed up as follows:

"This was land that had been confiscated by the Israeli government, and my immediate reaction was to tell my father that I had no interest in helping a woman whose forefathers had destroyed Ma'Alool. Yet his answer was always the same:

'You do not know, and neither do I, what her reasons for being here in Palestine are. But helping elderly women is in our blood, and you will go and ask her if she needs your assistance.'"<sup>266</sup>

Certainly, Ghassan's father is a good and moral man. And certainly, one could understand Ghassan's enmity towards Israel for the destruction of his village of Ma'Alool in 1948. However, a key point he failed to mention, was the fact that several surrounding Arab states invaded Israel in the wake of its declaration of independence in mid-May 1948 in violation of UN Resolution 181. If these invading Arab states had not invaded Israel and abided by the UN Resolution 181, the Palestinians in Israel would have far more land than what they ended up with, to which, Ghassan's village of Ma'Alool would have still been standing.

Much has been made of the "Nakba" (نكبة – Catastrophe) – ostensibly, the violent displacement and dispossession of the Palestinian people, along with the destruction of their society, culture, identity, political rights, and national aspirations.<sup>267</sup> However, the murderous war of 1948 exacted victims from all sides. So why is only one side [the Israelis] called upon to flagellate itself endlessly?<sup>268</sup> Moreover, given that in May 1948, in violation of UN Resolution 181, it was the surrounding Arab states that ganged up on Israel and invaded it, as they exuded in what turned out to be, the most misplaced of arrogant confidence.

For example, on May 12, 1948, two days before the proclamation of the State of Israel, thousands of Arabs and Arab Legionnaires attacked the Etzion Bloc (in Hebrew "Gush Etzion" – a block of four kibbutz settlements) twenty kilometres from Jerusalem.<sup>269</sup> The fighting went on for three long days, and 30 defenders were killed. On Friday, the day that the state was proclaimed, they could no longer hold out. They surrendered. In the massacre of Kfar Etzion, the Arabs murdered 127 men and women. Bodies lay in the fields for a year-and-a-half, until Transjordan allowed Israel to retrieve the corpses and bury them at Mount Herzl. The remainder were taken prisoner to Transjordan. The four kibbutzim were totally destroyed. Two hundred and forty settlers, Haganah and Palmah fighters were killed at the Etzion Bloc during five-and-a-half months of war.<sup>270</sup>

However, for six months, the battles of the four Etzion Bloc kibbutzim, 20 kilometres from Jerusalem, preoccupied large Arab forces from all over the Hebron Mountains – forces that consequently were unable to turn their attention to Jerusalem and join the battles against the city's Jews. The battles of the Etzion Bloc thus helped save Jewish Jerusalem.<sup>271</sup> (At least in part. As mentioned earlier, Jerusalem ended up being split between Jordanian and Israeli control after the 1948-49 war.<sup>272</sup> But in Jordanian East Jerusalem, the entire Jewish Quarter of the Old city lay in ruins.)<sup>273</sup>

On April 13, 1948, an aid convoy left the centre of Jewish Jerusalem for the besieged and isolated enclave on Mount Scopus, site of Hadassah Hospital and the campus of the Hebrew University. The convoy consisted of ambulances, armoured vehicles, supply trucks and buses carrying physicians, nurses, medical students and academic faculty. Near the village of Sheikh Jarrah, the convoy hit a land mine and was attacked by machine-gun fire, before being stormed by Palestinian militiamen who shot the passengers individually and torched the buses. Eighty of the 105 travellers were massacred.<sup>274</sup>

It's worth noting that following the UN partition decision [Resolution 181] in November 1947, Arab irregular forces began attacking Jews in Palestine and violence escalated in the succeeding months. In 1948, Arab troops blocked access to Hadassah Hospital and the Hebrew University campus on Mount Scopus, Jerusalem. The only access was via a narrow road, a mile and a half long passing through the Arab neighborhood of Sheikh Jarrah.<sup>275</sup>

Moreover, hardly anything is said about a million Jews from the Middle East and North Africa who were subject to horrifying levels of systematic antisemitism which ultimately resulted in their expulsion and flight from their homes, leaving behind $150 billion of property.<sup>276</sup> In many countries, such as Syria, Egypt and Libya, the entire Jewish population was evicted.<sup>277</sup>

Before one may say I am contradicting myself in implying in the title of this essay that the UN is a nefarious, globalist entity and enemy of Israel, yet keep pointing to UN Resolution 181 mandating the birth of modern-day Israel in 1948, I must clarify, that the actions of the UN ever since then, have hardly been pro-Israel. For one thing and to reiterate, the never ending resolutions against Israel, but hardly any ever passed against any Arab nation. But most damning, is their ultra-corrupt agency of UNRWA – United Nations Relief and Works Agency for Palestine Refugees<sup>278</sup> – the only such agency in the world devoted to the refugees of just one supposed nation.

No less nefarious than the UN's Wuhan Health Organisation – WHO, UNRWA distributed school materials to Palestine in 2020 that referred to neighbouring Israel as "The Enemy" and made references to martyrs and jihad. In a January 2021 report by the NGO (non-Government Organisation) The Institute for Monitoring Peace and Cultural Tolerance in School Education (IMPACT-se), it was reported.<sup>xxii</sup>

Our extensive research of PA [Palestinian Authority] school textbooks has consistently shown a systematic insertion of violence, martyrdom and jihad across all grades and subjects, with the proliferation of extreme nationalism and Islamist ideologies throughout the curriculum, including science and math textbooks; rejection of the possibility of peace with Israel; and complete omission of any historical Jewish presence in the modern-day territories of Israel and the PA. Yet, it is this material that is taught in UNRWA schools throughout the Palestinian Territories. UNRWA officially claims that it is unable to alter any of the problematic material that appears in PA textbooks under its mandate as this would impede the PA's "national sovereignty."<sup>279</sup>

xxii NOTE: I had to use the WayBack Machine archived copy at <https://web.archive.org/web/20210202225230/https://www.impact-se.org/wp-content/uploads/UNRWA-Produced-Study-Materials-in-the-Palestinian-Territories.pdf>.

“Encouragement of violence, jihad, terrorism and martyrdom. UNRWA-produced material frequently references, and sometimes directly reproduces, texts and phrases from the PA textbooks that glorify violence and sacrificing one’s life and blood to defend the “motherland.” Such examples include Arabic grammar exercises that use the language of jihad and sacrifice (see Example 3 in “Selected Examples” below) and passages that celebrate known terrorists such as Dalal Mughrabi (Ex. 1). In past statements, UNRWA officials have explicitly denied teaching students the sections of the PA curriculum that discuss Dalal Mughrabi, making the inclusion of these passages even more surprising and concerning. We were unable to find any direct condemnation of violence or approach to resolve conflict within the UNRWA-produced material.”<sup>280</sup>

And ...

“Conflict-oriented discourse. UNRWA-produced material discusses the national Palestinian conflict as a central theme throughout its content and makes frequent references to violence and war. These include comparisons between the Spanish Inquisition and Israeli prisons (Ex. 14) and math exercises that ask students to tally the number of dead “martyrs” in the First Intifada (1987–93) (Ex. 11). UNRWA-produced material presents Israel as “the Enemy,” creating an “us versus them” dichotomy. This violates the UN principle of peacemaking and peaceful resolution of conflicts.”<sup>281</sup>

Finally, in the IMPACT-se Review of 2022 UNRWA-Produced School Materials, it was reported:

“Along with other school curricula across the MENA region, IMPACT-se has been analyzing the PA school curriculum used by UNRWA for over two decades, assessing compliance with UN values, such as tolerance, non-violence, and peace-making. Our continued and unavoidable impression is that UNRWA, as a UN organization, knowingly teaches material that is inconsistent with UN values in its Gaza Strip and West Bank schools. In addition, UNRWA’s lack of transparency in addressing such problematic issues makes it impossible to properly evaluate its effectiveness.”<sup>282</sup>

In a series of tweets around January 2021, UNRWA Commissioner General Philippe Lazzarini indicated that the material in question was distributed in error, and that the agency had replaced the offending pages with “content that adheres to U.N. values.”<sup>283</sup> However, one year later, Lazzarini’s statement is clearly in diametric conflict with IMPACT-se’s 2022 statement. Which it would seem, make a mockery of the UN’s claim as any sort of honest peace-broker in this conflict, when it has a vested interest in ensuring a fostering of perpetual hatred and bitter never-ending conflict in the Middle East. Put another way, the UN calling for an Israeli ceasefire in Gaza, is more about preserving the existence of Hamas rather than a call for a durable and meaningful peace.

Bassam Tawil from the Gatestone Institute wrote that in the Hamas-ruled Gaza Strip, UNRWA has, in fact, long been operating as the de facto government.<sup>284</sup> By providing the residents of the Gaza Strip with various services, UNRWA exempted Hamas from its responsibilities as the governing body, such as creating a working economy that would pay for education and healthcare, and allowed it, instead, to invest resources in building tunnels and manufacturing weapons. If UNRWA were not there, Hamas would have been forced to fill the vacuum and, for example, build hospitals and schools and find solutions to economic hardship, including unemployment and poverty.<sup>285</sup>

As senior Hamas official Mousa Abu Marzouk said, in explaining why no cement could be spared from terror tunnels to build bomb shelters for Gazan citizens:

“The tunnels were built to protect the fighters of Hamas from [Israeli] airstrikes. As you know, 75% of the residents of the Gaza Strip are refugees. It is the responsibility of the United Nations to protect the refugees.”<sup>286</sup>

Hamas was effectively saying: We are responsible for what happens underground, while UNRWA is responsible for what happens above ground.<sup>287</sup> Which includes it seems, indoctrinating Gazan children with a perpetual hatred for Jews.

On January 3rd 2024, the Israeli government released a video interview of a Gaza civilian who said a Hamas operative herded his group into Al Shifa Hospital when they were trying to follow IDF instructions to flee south.<sup>288</sup> Terrorists were living under the hospital, but knowing Israeli soldiers were coming, they emerged and hid among the civilians.<sup>289</sup> “I felt that we are human shields,” the civilian said. The Israeli military said on Jan. 3 that it had dismantled an 800-foot [244 metre] tunnel underneath Al Shifa Hospital in Gaza City, which UNRWA operates.<sup>290</sup>

Yet, even media outlets like the aforementioned US-Canadian Catholic Life Site News in mid-December 2023, all too aware of the nefarious WHO, UN in general, World Economic Forum and apostate globalist pope that is Jorge Mario Bergoglio (ostensibly “Pope” Francis), think the nefarious UN has suddenly become altruistic brokers of peace, and condemn Israel at every turn.<sup>291</sup> Clearly, they have no knowledge of the nefarious UN agency UNRWA and its agenda. Nor Hamas’ exploitation of Gazan civilians as human shields, nor demanding the release of hostages. Moreover, their reliance on the assessment of Scott Ritter,<sup>292</sup> an ex-marine but rabid supporter of the ex-KGB thug Vladimir Putin, the latter aligned with the Hamas-backing Iran, the socialist utopia of Venezuela, Cuba and the Chinese Communist Party, and Ritter’s ignorance of the growing threat of Islam to Western civilisation, raises serious questions as to where Ritter’s true allegiance lies.

And indeed, the story of the ultra-corrupt UNRWA does tie in with the story of the Palestinian American Ghassan Bisharat, where he elucidated how the the philosophy of his parents, so critical to the man he is today, is the ultimate and purest antithesis to the agenda of the ultra-corrupt UNRWA indoctrinating Palestinian children from as young as five, to hate and kill Jews. Moreover, we have this pretentious clown Martin Griffiths, the United Nations Under-Secretary-General for Humanitarian Affairs state in a February 2023 interview with UK Sky News, that;

“Hamas is not a terrorist group for us, of course as you know, it’s a political movement.”<sup>293</sup>

Maybe this imbecile realises that if he calls Hamas a terrorist group, that would be akin to admitting that the UN agency UNRWA is itself, a terrorist group, or even Hamas itself?

To which, it’s little wonder, that according to a poll conducted by the Arab World for Research and Development (AWRAD),<sup>294</sup> that 59% percent of Palestinians joyously or fervently celebrated the October 7th Al-Aqsa flood of heinous atrocities perpetrated by Hamas upon mostly Jews,<sup>295</sup> but also foreigners, including Thai farm workers, as Hamas terrorists, just love murdering “infidels”. This is regardless of whether or not you think the Israeli government purposely allowed the Hamas breach of its border on October 7th, to manufacture the pretext to obliterate Gaza. Likewise, George Soros funded protesters at the Sydney Opera House, just days following October 7th, would still chant; “gas the Jews!” To which I ask protesters bellowing “From the River to the Sea [Hamas] Palestine will be ‘free’”, would you want a fundamentalist Islamic terrorist state like the Hamas administered Gaza, on your doorstep? To which the following question, is most awkward to the pro-Hamas perspective. Namely;

“Why does Egypt refuse to accept any Gazan refugees,<sup>296</sup> in spite of Gaza being Egyptian territory before the 1967 Six Day war,<sup>297</sup> in which multiple Arab states including Egypt again invaded Israel following the 1948 Arab-Israeli war, and in spite of the fact that Egypt already hosts 9 million immigrants and foreigners from various countries in the Middle East and Africa?”<sup>298</sup>

The answer I often hear to this thorny question to the pro-Hamas perspective, is that Gazan refugees are not Egypt’s responsibility. But of course, one can talk of how Poland accepts Ukrainian refugees fleeing from Putin bombing the crap out of their homes. And as the question states, “Egypt already hosts 9 million immigrants and foreigners from various countries in the Middle East and Africa?”<sup>299</sup>

A much more convincing answer I have found, is from Haisam Hassanein, an adjunct fellow at the Foundation for Defense of Democracies, where as he writes, he analyses Israel’s relations with Arab and Muslim countries:

“Cairo also worries that hosting Palestinian refugees could pose a national security threat. Operatives from Hamas and other Gazan terrorist groups could infiltrate by posing as refugees and then launch attacks inside Egypt. Indeed, in the past, Hamas cooperated with the Islamic State to move weapons from Iran and Libya through the peninsula.<sup>300</sup> Previous bloody clashes in Palestinian refugee camps in countries such as Jordan and Lebanon<sup>301</sup> don’t inspire confidence. In addition, if the Palestinian refugees were to attack Israel from Egypt, it could strain Egyptian-Israeli relations and invite Israeli military action on Egyptian territory.”<sup>302</sup>

Moreover, after the 1967 Six-Day War, Palestinian fedayeen (fedayun) guerrillas relocated to Jordan and stepped up their attacks against Israel and the so-called Israeli occupied territories of the Syrian Golan Heights, Gaza and the West Bank. They were headquartered at the Jordanian border town of Karameh,<sup>303</sup> which Israel targeted during the Battle of Karameh in 1968, leading to a surge of Arab support for the fedayeen. The PLO’s strength grew, and by early 1970, leftist groups within the PLO began calling for the overthrow of Jordan’s Hashemite monarchy,<sup>304</sup> leading to violent clashes in June 1970.

This precipitated Black September (Arabic: أيلول الأسود Aylūl al-’Aswad), also known as the Jordanian Civil War, which was an armed conflict between Jordan, led by King Hussein, and the Palestine Liberation Organization (PLO), led by chairman Yasser Arafat. The main phase of the fighting took place between 16 and 27 September 1970, though certain aspects of the conflict continued until 17 July 1971.<sup>305</sup>

On June 7th, 1970, fighting broke out between the fedayeen and the Jordanian army in Zarqa. Two days later, the fedayeen opened fire on the General Intelligence Directorates (mukhabarat) headquarters. King Hussein went to visit the mukhabarat headquarters after the incident, but his motorcade came under heavy fedayeen fire, killing one of his guards.<sup>306</sup> Bedouin units of the army retaliated for the assassination attempt against their king by shelling Al-Wehdat and Al-Hussein camps, which escalated into a conflict that lasted three days.<sup>307</sup>

Almost eighteen months later on the 28th November 1971, four Black September gunmen assassinated the Jordanian Prime Minister Wasfi Tal in the lobby of the Sheraton Cairo Hotel in Egypt while he was attending an Arab League summit in the city. As Tal lay dying, “one of the assassins knelt and lapped with his tongue the blood flowing across the marble floor.”<sup>308</sup>

And to boot, the Munich massacre was a terrorist attack carried out during the 1972 Summer Olympics by eight members of Black September, who infiltrated the Olympic Village, killed two members of the Israeli Olympic team, and took nine others hostage.<sup>309</sup> The Black September commander and negotiator was Luttfif Afif, who was given logistical assistance by West German neo-Nazis.<sup>310</sup>

The Black September Organization was later officially disbanded in 1973–1974 as the PLO sought to exploit the Yom Kippur War of 1973 and pursue a diplomatic strategy.<sup>311</sup> Nevertheless, for the Jordanians, and it seems the Egyptians, the memory of the PLO radical offshoot of Black September, is still no less vivid more than half-a-century on. Nevertheless, the 1973-74 official disbandment of Black September did not prevent the 1981 Antwerp synagogue bombing<sup>312</sup> on October 20th killing three and injuring 106.<sup>313</sup>

Another flawed argument I have heard from the pro-Hamas perspective, is that the fraudulently elected<sup>314</sup> Obama-cardboard-cut-out Biden-Harris DC Sewer Junta is unequivocally pro-Israel and committed to war against Iran and even to the point of wiping Iran from existence. Of course, to reiterate, the Islamic-Shiite fundamentalist state of Iran, which among its litany of human rights abuses,<sup>315</sup> formally recognises the marriage of child brides,<sup>316</sup> has repeatedly affirmed its commitment to the destruction of Israel.

That aside however, its clear with just the most cursory scratching below the surface, that the perception of the fraudulently elected<sup>317</sup> and duplicitous Obama-cardboard-cut-out Biden-Harris DC Sewer Junta as an unqualified friend of Israel, pointing to say Biden hugging Netanyahu on a visit to Israel in mid-October 2023,<sup>318</sup> holds as much credibility as their no doubt, aforementioned erroneous perception of the nefarious George Soros as a loyal Zionist.

As the retired UK Colonel Richard Kemp put it in a November 27th 2023 article in the UK Telegraph:

“Joe Biden is no friend of Israel. His constant appeasement of Tehran<sup>319</sup> and blatant distancing from Jerusalem – even refusing to invite Netanyahu to the White House – as well as his feeble responses to Iranian-sponsored attacks against US forces in the region, have only weakened the Israeli government’s hand in fighting terrorism.”<sup>320</sup>

AND ...

“After his visit to Jerusalem at the start of the war, Biden said: “My administration’s support for Israel’s security is rock solid and unwavering”. It wasn’t long before his actions proved his duplicitousness. While saying publicly that Hamas had to be defeated, he began coercing Israel behind the scenes to stop short of achieving that goal. US collusion with Qatar, which has long harboured Hamas leaders,<sup>321</sup> [In five star luxury] forced the Israeli war cabinet to agree a ceasefire in return for release of a few hostages.”

AND ...

“According to The Washington Post, Biden even went as far as to privately apologise to Muslim leaders in the US for questioning Hamas figures for civilian casualties a few days ago. That reflects his double-dealing approach to this war, on the one hand appearing to back Israel’s security objectives while on the other working to undermine them. It’s all about the next election, and Biden doesn’t seem to understand that the strategic outcome in the Middle East needs to take precedence over his return to the White House.”

In regard to “appeasement of Tehran” in the quoted opening paragraph, it was back in mid-August 2023 that as part of early talks in lobbying the Iranian regime to stop sending drones to Russia as part of a wider, informal agreement that would also seek to calm friction in the Middle East between Israel, Iran and the latter's proxy forces in the region, the fraudulently elected Obama-cardboard-cut-out Biden-Harris DC Sewer Junta signed up to a prisoner swap deal with Tehran. However, in return, the DC Sewer Junta released $6 billion (£4.7 billion) in frozen assets to the Iranian Islamic-Shiite fundamentalist regime!!<sup>322</sup>

Then in mid-November 2023, in an inexplicable move, the Obama-cardboard-cut-out Biden-Harris DC Sewer Junta granted Iraq a new 4-month waiver, enabling the release of billions of dollars to Iran, blocked by US sanctions. This decision, coming amid the Gaza war and Iran's backing for Hamas, effectively unfroze an estimated $10 billion that Iraq owes Iran but could not pay due to US sanctions.<sup>323</sup>

But perhaps the crowning glory dates back to early September 2016, when under the Obama administration, at which time Biden was vice-President, finally acknowledged, after earlier denials of such, that its transfer of $1.7 billion to Iran earlier that year, was made entirely in cash, using non-U.S. currency!<sup>324</sup> And what's more, on pallets flown on military aircraft!<sup>325</sup> The payment was purportedly interest on the settlement of a 1979 arms deal between the two countries immediately before the Islamic Revolution.<sup>326</sup> But wait ... there is still more from earlier that year! Namely, when the Obama Marxist administration<sup>xxiii</sup> secretly organised an airlift of $400 million worth of cash to Iran that coincided with the January release of four Americans detained in Tehran, according to U.S. and European officials and congressional staff briefed on the operation afterward.<sup>327</sup>

Related to this dubious pro-Hamas perception of the blithering, vapid, feckless and fraudulently elected Obama-cardboard-cut-out President Joe Biden being a staunch ally of Israel in the ultimate obliteration of Iran, was when, in a rather heated discourse I had with a rabid anti-Semite in late 2023, he accused me of being an unwitting pawn of our ultra-corrupt Globalist Institutionalised Fake News (GIFN) media.

Well, apart from what I written in this piece, my book and dozens of pieces on my blog, I pointed out to him, an alarming incident from late-October to early-November 2023 in England, that obliterated his perception. This was when a terminally ill man was arrested for posting a video on Facebook of himself raising issues he had as he filmed numerous Palestinian flags being displayed in his street in the wake of October 7th.<sup>328</sup>

This bloke could not believe it, and asked me when it happened. Being a desktop computer dinosaur and luddite with annoying and fiddly "smart" phones, I didn't have the evidence available to show at that time, but of course, the just listed endnote supplies several links affirming this regrettable and abjectly disturbing incident in supine appeasement to the agenda of radical Islam. To which the Iranian-American Pastor Sharam Hadian, born in Iran and a convert to Christianity in 1999, in his Christmas video presentation on his Truth in Love Ministry Rumble Channel posted on December 26th 2023, most poignantly titled it Hamas Attacks Christmas!<sup>329</sup> as he likened the Hamas thugs globally to Hitler's Brown Shirts thugs of the crumbling Weimar Germany of the early 1930s. No less poignant, being Daniel Greenfield's article titled Hamas Supporters Launch Attacks on Christmas Celebrations Across the Globe.<sup>330</sup>

Moreover, in another classic example of Western pro-Hamas twin-tiered policing in the city of Toronto in the Canada of the aforementioned World Economic Forum Young Global Leader Justin Trudeau,<sup>331</sup> the police since October 7th, 2023, have abided hours and hours of pro-Hamas hate marches blasting Jewish synagogues and schools and then as soon as Naved Awan,<sup>332</sup> a radical Iranian thug in mid-March 2024, declares the public street a mosque [WTF?], the police succumb to some sort of pseudo-Sharia law enforcement and arrest Rebel News journalist David Menzies for asking questions.<sup>333</sup>

Indeed, I have had the privilege and fortune to read this meticulously researched work of Paul Kengor.

It is indeed, a re-run of the 2020 American leftist Summer riots, albeit with the Green theme of Islam now replacing the Red theme of Marxism, but both still embodied in the overall theme of the Marxist-Islamic Red-Green Axis. To which in between in 2021 and 2022, we were subjected globally to the rabid medical fascist COVID jab mandates,<sup>xxiv</sup> under the dubious mantra of “safe and effective”,<sup>xxv</sup> which one can so define in line with Benito Mussolini’s concept of Fascism as the merger of Big Government with mega corporations.<sup>xxvi</sup> To which sadly in Israel, the conservative government of Benjamin Netanyahu and later successive Labor governments, were willing accomplices in peddling the dangerous Pfizer jabs,<sup>334</sup> while concurrently in Gaza, Hamas were equally culpable in perpetrating COVID jab medical fascism on its people,<sup>335</sup> albeit of the Vladimir Putin Sputnik 5 variety.<sup>336 xxvii</sup>

As for the raving anti-Semite, as he concluded our cordial discussion with “You have a lot to learn Vince” before his requisite denial of the Holocaust, it was one hour subsequent to which, that I was informed he was a devoted supporter of the “Flat Earth Theory”,<sup>xxviii</sup> as people shared his links on Biblical scripture ostensibly supporting Flat Earth. Fair Dinkum! You cannot make this up! I wonder if this bloke ever used a GPS??

xxiv In regard to the nefarious COVID jab mandates, just search for “COVID jabs” in my August 2023 submission against the Australian Federal Government’s Disinfo bill at https://vincebarwinski.com/wp-content/uploads/2023/08/COMPLETE\_submission\_against\_combatting\_acma\_misinformation\_and\_disinformation\_bill\_2023.pdf. In particular, from the beginning page 23, documenting how global excess deaths are inextricably linked to the global rollout of the jabs from December 2020. Search for “Walker” and “75 years”. As to why I only call them jabs, and not “vaccines”, search for “Thank goodness for the good old” in regard to how the American CDC in early September, due to the declining effectiveness of the jabs, had to dramatically water down the very definition of “vaccine”. Search also for “but not about unjabbed beloved”.

xxv In regard to the ludicrously rapid decline in effectiveness of the COVID jabs as 2021 past us by, watch the Elon Musk’s Twitter video at <https://twitter.com/elonmusk/status/1706676593261785178>.

xxvi Mussolini defined Fascism as “Fascism should more appropriately be called Corporatism because it is a merger of state and corporate power”. See https://www.goodreads.com/author/quotes/221166.Benito\_Mussolini. Hence, given the Big Pharma dimension of the COVID jabs, they were more specifically, Medical Fascism.

xxvii In regard to Putin and Zelensky being equally culpable in pushing the COVID jab mandates in their respective countries, see my blog article on the Russia-Ukraine war at <https://vincebarwinski.com/2022/05/15/the-russian-invasion-of-ukraine-the-globalist-engineered-conundrum-of-deceit-deception-confusion-and-subversion/> and search for “vaccine”.

xxviii Of course, evidence for the spherical Earth is overwhelming, yet it seems in this era of chronically corrupted Science – such as the COVID jabs and the CCCS – Catastrophic Climate Change Scam, the inexorably ludicrous flat-earth theory, among those who have lost trust in Science and its experts, but know nothing of Mathematics, Astronomy and Physics, seems to be experiencing a distinct resurgence! However, the theory of gravity consistently predicts the tides, the motions of planets, the Moon and artificial satellites and lunar and solar eclipses. So clearly, gravity exists. Hence, if the Earth were a flat disk as these clowns claim, then the force or acceleration due to gravity would vary dramatically from various points on the surface of the disk, with it being most powerful at the centre. However, the force of gravity, or acceleration due to it, is essentially constant anywhere on the surface of the Earth, due to every point of the surface, being essentially the same distance from the spherical (or spheroidal) Earth’s centre. Moreover, the huge variance in gravitational force between different points on the flat Earth disk, would more than likely, lead to it collapsing in on itself to wait for it – a sphere! And of course, a flat Earth theory, can never explain for example why the North Polar star Polaris, is never visible in the Southern Hemisphere, or why the constellation of the Southern Cross is only visible from south of 30 degrees North latitude – the latitude of North Africa and Florida. So unlike the nefarious claims by governments of “safe and effective” COVID “vaccines”, the truth of the spherical Earth is utterly as self-evident as our God given right to decide what we inject into our body. As for determining the distance to a horizon from a given elevation, see my Horizon Calculator on my old website. The formula I use for it I derived myself from differential calculus.

Among this ilk, the dubious concept of Replacement Theology<sup>337</sup> [also known as “supersessionism”] abounds. Namely the idea that the Christian Church has “replaced” Israel (or the Jewish people) in God’s plan of salvation as His chosen people.<sup>338</sup> In its simplest expression, replacement theology could be expressed as follows:

“The Jews have rejected Christ; therefore God has rejected the Jews and the Church is now the ‘New Israel.’”

In the words of Origen of Alexandria (185-254 A.D.):

“We may thus assert in utter confidence that the Jews will not return to their earlier situation, for they have committed the most abominable of crimes, in forming this conspiracy against the Savior of the human race... hence the city where Jesus suffered was necessarily destroyed, the Jewish nation was driven from its country, and another people was called by God to the blessed election.”

And ...

“We Catholics ARE the new Israel. Christ’s Church fulfills all the prophecies and makes the continuation of the old Israel historically out of date. The Church IS the Kingdom of God. Jews are the most tragic people in the world in that “they missed the time of their visitation.”<sup>339</sup>

As the Catholics for Israel website put it, there are three main tenants of Replacement Theology, with the third being:

“The promises, covenants and blessings ascribed to Israel in the Bible have been taken away from the Jews and given to the Church, which has superseded them. However, the Jews are still subject to the curses found in the Bible, as a result of their rejection of Christ. Consequently, the prophecies in Scripture concerning the blessing and restoration of Israel to the Promised Land are ‘spiritualized’ or ‘allegorized’ into promises of God's blessing for the Church.”<sup>340</sup>

The Catholic Church however, as documented on Catholics for Israel:

“In fact, the Church has never officially endorsed this idea. The key term here is officially, for it's undeniable that there has been a long, unofficial tradition of supersessionism in the Catholic Church that goes back to the Church Fathers. Even though supersessionism was never a magisterial, authoritative Catholic doctrine, the absence of an official Catholic teaching on God’s covenant with the Jewish people combined with, at times, widespread anti-Semitic attitudes, led to a pervasive acceptance of replacement theology among Christians throughout history.”<sup>341</sup>

Hence, for many Catholics believing that the unconditional Abrahamic Covenant has been superseded and/or revoked by the new covenant, would perhaps view the title for this essay as borderline, or indeed, outright blasphemy. In arguments with raving anti-Semites, I have heard them bellow; “Those filthy stinking Zionists”; to which I have since learnt from the Iranian-American Pastor Sharam Hadian,<sup>342</sup> the word “Zion” is mentioned about 150 times in the Bible, and never in a negative context.

Often brought up by this ilk, are passages from the Talmud, purportedly of very dark and malevolent intent. The term Talmud normally refers to the collection of writings named specifically the Babylonian Talmud (Talmud Bavli), compiled in the 5th century by Rav Ashi and Ravina II. There is also an earlier collection known as the Jerusalem Talmud (Talmud Yerushalmi).<sup>343</sup>

Of course, for me to cover them all here would be impossible. But perhaps the most disturbing claim I have read is the claim that the Talmud condones the rape of three year old girls! The thing is, this is bullshit. It is taken right out of context.

For example:

3-Claim: Jews allow sex with toddlers. Proof: Talmud says:

Rava said: If an adult has sex with a girl under the age of three, the matter is ignored. [Ketubot 11b]

Answer: Context is a discussion of a ketubah (what a man must pay his wife he divorces her). A virgin bride gets a higher ketubah. The ruling is just that if a girl is molested before age 3, she is still considered a virgin and is entitled to the higher ketubah.<sup>344</sup>

Before concluding, I must document my thoughts on a very questionable, and I am sad to say, fellow countryman of mine; namely another rabid anti-Semite that goes by the name of Max Igan, who fled Australia for Mexico in October 2021.<sup>345</sup> The latter point of his flight from his native Australia, being a major point of attraction for a great number people within Freedom Movements.

In November 2023, it was brought to my attention by an anti-Semitic acquaintance, that Max Igan posted a 66 minute rabid anti-Israel video on the Odysee video platform. Of course, I cannot address every point, but from 33 to 34 minutes in, I can reveal an all out lie that Igan stated in relation to the aforementioned 2006 Palestinian legislative election and the subsequent Battle of Gaza from 10th to the 15th of June 2007.

Earlier, I alluded to how the Muslim Brotherhood and their offshoots have the propensity to pretend to be political and non-violent until they can seize power – which was quintessentially embodied in the Battle of Gaza from 10th to the 15th of June 2007, also referred to as Hamas' takeover of Gaza.

It was a military conflict between the rival Palestinian factions Fatah (As just mentioned, Fatah was founded by Arafat under KGB behest in the early 1960s)<sup>346</sup> and Hamas. It was a prominent event in the Fatah–Hamas conflict, centred on the struggle for power after Fatah lost the 2006 Palestinian legislative election, but refused to duly acknowledge the result. The battle resulted in the dissolution of the unity government and the de facto division of the Palestinian territories into two entities: the West Bank governed by the Palestinian National Authority (PNA), and the Gaza Strip governed by Hamas. Hamas fighters took control of the Gaza Strip, while Fatah officials were either taken as prisoners, executed, or expelled. The Palestinian Centre for Human Rights reported that at least 161 people were killed and more than 700 were wounded during the fighting.<sup>347</sup>

During this violent 2007 takeover of the Gaza strip by Hamas, Max Igan from 33 to 34 minutes into his 66 minute video, asserts that Israeli troops stood back and did not lift a finger to stop the Hamas seizure of power from the Palestinian National Authority. However, Israel pulled out completely from Gaza in August-September 2005!<sup>348</sup> Hence, Igan is either misinformed or straight out lying.

Some, such as the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace,<sup>349</sup> naively predicted or hoped that by reconciling with their Palestinian political rivals in Fatah, Hamas would become more responsive to its own public and ultimately a more moderate movement, but that did not happen. Indeed, in June 2006 Hamas operatives penetrated into Israel via tunnels dug from Gaza, ambushed an Israeli border patrol, killing two soldiers and injuring two more, and kidnapped Israeli soldier Gilad Shalit. Hamas would hold Shalit captive for five years, releasing him in exchange for the release of 1,027 Palestinians held in Israeli jails.<sup>350</sup> Hence, if you donate the UN instrument of UNRWA, please be aware where your hard-earned dollars will be spent! Namely tunnels and jihad indoctrination, but certainly not on basic infrastructure. Hence, I doubt we will see or hear of any major technological or scientific innovation, coming out of Gaza any time soon!

But back to good ol' Maxie! He has a website called The Crow House and likewise named Odysee channel. The anti-Israel rhetoric in both is immediately obvious, but in the former link to the Crow House website, there is a link to a video titled; The Greatest Story Never Told. Clicking on the link, takes you to a description of this video, albeit, the link to the trailer is dead. However, what jumps out at you, is that the video description screams out that the mass murdering tyrant Adolf Hitler, the most reviled man perhaps in history, was supposedly horribly misunderstood and misrepresented! In short, it seems that Maxie is an unqualified admirer of Adolf Hitler, making him the most "authoritative" source imaginable on the Israel-Hamas issue. Kind of like the "philanthropist" Bill Gates and Anthony Fauci, the latter with his Moderna shares,<sup>351</sup> being trusted when they claimed the COVID jabs were safe and effective!<sup>xxix</sup> Moreover, just above The Greatest Story Never Told, is a link Hellstorm - The Real Genocide of Nazi Germany with in turn, a treasure trove of video links to National Socialist revisionism. Hmmmm ... looks like hundreds of thousands of Holocaust survivors lied??!! Because raving anti-Semite Maxie and his mates said so.

But there is still more on Maxie! It seems he has a predilection for back-flipping between the global and flat Earth models. Hmmmm ... what is it with raving anti-Semites and the flat Earth? In one debate, he comes up with reasoned arguments for the obvious truth of the global Earth.<sup>352</sup> Yet, in another video, he claims the Earth is definitely flat,<sup>353</sup> then in another, he flips back to the global model, claiming that when he professed his support for the flat Earth, he was under the influence of a directed mind control energy beam!!<sup>354</sup> Don't worry Maxie, or is it Richard Maxwell Rowe? – I still believe you! The Earth is of course, both flat and round! Whatever you wish it to be! Hmmmm ... "Whatever you wish it [or you] to be." Where I have I heard that before? And ....

Are you mates with George Soros?

I would love to know! Given the evidence I have uncovered in my research, I suppose you should be mates with your equally nefarious Hamas-loving Soros.

In his 66 minute video, Igan raises the idea of the Synagogue of Satan as written about by the Apostle John in the book of Revelation, ostensibly implying that modern-day Israel is just that. This if from Revelation Chapter 2 verses 8 to 11, which documents Christ's letter to the faithful church of Smyrna – which is one of Christ's seven letters to the seven churches of Asia Minor in modern-day Turkey.

[8] "To the angel of the church in Smyrna write:

These are the words of him who is the First and the Last, who died and came to life again. [9] I know your afflictions and your poverty—yet you are rich! I know about the slander of those who say they are Jews and are not, but are a synagogue of Satan. [10] Do not be afraid of what you are about to suffer. I tell you, the devil will put some of you in prison to test you, and you will suffer persecution for ten days. Be faithful, even to the point of death, and I will give you life as your victor's crown."

[11] Whoever has ears, let them hear what the Spirit says to the churches. The one who is victorious will not be hurt at all by the second death.<sup>355 xxx</sup>

Certainly, I have heard more than once from anti-Semites, "the synagogue of Satan" supposedly implying the notion of modern-day Israel ruled by "Jewish [Turkic] Khazarian Bolsheviks" being a false Israel or indeed, the very embodiment of John Chapter 2 verse 9. However, given my research embodied in the title for this essay, why not at least consider the most nominal Jew and nefarious radical-left Globalist billionaire George Soros as the false Jewish head of John's synagogue of Satan? And indeed the aforementioned Soros funded Marxist JVP – Jewish Voice for Peace,<sup>356</sup> his congregation, as evidence to which being when they occupied the Cannon Building rotunda in Washington DC on October 18th 2023,<sup>357</sup> with hundreds arrested, [I doubt they will get the J6 DC Gulag treatment!] and six Capitol Police officers treated for injuries, "ranging from minor cuts to being pepper sprayed to being punched."<sup>358</sup> According to House Representative Brandon Williams, Pro-Hamas demonstrators went from office to office in the Halls of Congress antagonizing Members that #StandWithIsrael.<sup>359</sup> Many of whom, from his video, can in dutiful and dystopian ideological compliance, still be seen wearing their face diapers or nappies.

As I know from personal experience, for Igan and the anti-Semitic narrative in general, this would of course, strike an all too sensitive nerve of irony. And Igan given for one thing, his video as posted on August 27, 2020,<sup>360</sup> on the Facebook page of Trump Supporters NZ, where he claimed that "Fauci, Gates, Soros And Epstein Are All Connected Through The Company Moderna".<sup>361 xxxi</sup>

Apart from the now glaringly self-evident irony of Igan himself calling out the pro-Hamas Soros among this certainly evil and nefarious quad, Igan again illustrates his propensity for lying by claiming that "Bill Gates and Anthony Fauci were room mates at Cornell University."<sup>362</sup> Regardless of this "fact" check by the notorious Lead Stories, common sense dictates that this was impossible, given that the mass-murdering medical fascist sociopath Anthony Fauci<sup>xxxii</sup> was born on December 24th 1940<sup>363</sup> – almost fifteen years before the likewise Bill Gates on October 28th, 1955, with Fauci graduating from Cornell Medical College in New York City in 1966,<sup>364</sup> when Gates would have been just eleven years old.

And on one final point in regard to Flat-Earth-flipping-mind-control-beam Maxie! In his November 2023 Odysee video, he claims Gazans are dying at an incredible rate from indiscriminate Israeli saturation bombing. Certainly, the number of civilian casualties in Gaza has been at the centre of international attention since the start of the war. However, the main source for the data, including in all likelihood the data claimed by Maxie, has been, to say the least, the the highly questionable Hamas-controlled Gaza Health Ministry, which by March 7th, 2024, now claims more than 30,000 dead, the majority of which it says are children and women.<sup>365</sup>

xxx The second death is the punishment of the souls of the lost after bodily death. To quote Revelation 20: 13-15; [13] The sea gave up the dead that were in it, and death and Hades gave up the dead that were in them, and each person was judged according to what they had done. [14] Then death and Hades were thrown into the lake of fire. The lake of fire is the second death. [15] Anyone whose name was not found written in the book of life was thrown into the lake of fire.

xxxii Yes, I have used the nefarious Lead Stories "Fact" Checker, which does pain me, but in this instance, at least in regard to Igan's dubious claim of Fauci and Gates being room mates at Cornell, does indeed checkout with just the use of plain common sense and the most elementary research.

xxxii See again my submission against the August 2023 Australian Disinformation Bill at https://vincebarwinski.com/wp-content/uploads/2023/08/COMPLETE\_submission\_against\_combatting\_acma\_misinformation\_and\_disinformation\_bill\_2023.pdf and use the search terms "Fauci" and "Gates".

“Questionable” here being the operative word of understatement, given as already discussed in this essay, the bombing of the Al-Ahli Arab hospital in mid-October 2023, when Hamas claimed Israel had levelled Al-Ahli Arab hospital with an airstrike, eliciting outrage from around the world as its allies screamed war crime and the media rushed to prop up Hamas’ story. For example, “Pravda On The Hudson” – New York Times has been reported as doing as such by the no less left-leaning Politico,<sup>366</sup> before being forced to hastily alter their story.

Nevertheless, this has not stopped what raving anti-Semites dub the “rabidly pro-Israel” but in truth fraudulently elected Obama-cardboard-cut-out President Joe Biden DC sewer junta from lending legitimacy to the Hamas’ figure of 30,000.<sup>367</sup> When asked at a House Armed Services Committee hearing at the end of February 2024, how many Palestinian women and children have been killed since Oct. 7, Secretary of Defence Lloyd Austin said the number was “over 25,000.”<sup>368</sup> However, the Pentagon quickly clarified that the secretary “was citing an estimate from the Hamas-controlled Health Ministry.[!!!]”<sup>369</sup> Creepy Sleepy Biden himself had earlier cited this figure, asserting that “too many, too many of the over 27,000 Palestinians killed in this conflict have been innocent civilians and children, including thousands of children.” The White House also explained that the president “was referring to publicly available data about the total number of casualties.”<sup>370</sup>

But as Abraham Wyner, Professor of Statistics and Data Science at The Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania and Faculty Co-Director of the Wharton Sports Analytics and Business Initiative documented,<sup>371</sup>

“Here’s the problem with this data: The numbers are not real. That much is obvious to anyone who understands how naturally occurring numbers work. The casualties are not overwhelmingly women and children, and the majority may be Hamas fighters. If Hamas’ numbers are faked or fraudulent in some way, there may be evidence in the numbers themselves that can demonstrate it. While there is not much data available, there is a little, and it is enough: From Oct. 26 until Nov. 10, 2023, the Gaza Health Ministry released daily casualty figures that include both a total number and a specific number of women and children.”<sup>372</sup>

In summing up, Abraham Wyner puts it as follows:

“Taken together, what does this all imply? While the evidence is not dispositive, it is highly suggestive that a process unconnected or loosely connected to reality was used to report the numbers. Most likely, the Hamas ministry settled on a daily total arbitrarily. We know this because the daily totals increase too consistently to be real. Then they assigned about 70% of the total to be women and children, splitting that amount randomly from day to day. Then they in-filled the number of men as set by the predetermined total. This explains all the data observed.”<sup>373</sup>

AND ...

“The truth can’t yet be known and probably never will be. The total civilian casualty count is likely to be extremely overstated. Israel estimates that at least 12,000 fighters have been killed. If that number proves to be even reasonably accurate, then the ratio of noncombatant casualties to combatants is remarkably low: at most 1.4 to 1 and perhaps as low as 1 to 1. By historical standards of urban warfare, where combatants are embedded above and below into civilian population centers, this is a remarkable and successful effort to prevent unnecessary loss of life while fighting an implacable enemy that protects itself with civilians.”<sup>374</sup>

Before I conclude with the theme of fascinating but equally disturbing Satanic Freemason Prophecy from 1871, I must briefly allude to how the field of AI – Artificial Intelligence, has made its way into the propaganda arm of the Israel-Hamas conflict. Namely; Adobe Caught Selling Dishonest AI-Generated Images As Actual Photos of Israel “Violence”. This was first reported on the Australian News Outlet Crikey on November 1st 2023,<sup>375</sup> but plenty more have reported it since.<sup>376</sup> However, one of the most obviously damning is an image shown in the Irish Sun on November 24th 2023, of an injured little boy, standing as he raises his left bloodied left hand with six fingers, as his mother lays dead to his left. In the same article, another AI generated image depicts a crying baby trapped in rubble in Gaza, while another shows a toddler standing in rubble after an airstrike.<sup>377</sup> This conflict is certainly as much an information/propaganda war as it is kinetic and bloody.

For most of my life, it has fascinated me how much this tiny sliver of land has consumed world news. Moreover, after reading the fascinating book *Disinformation: Former Spy Chief Reveals Secret Strategies for Undermining Freedom, Attacking Religion, and Promoting Terrorism* by the highest ranking Eastern Bloc Cold War defector to the US; Romanian defector Lieutenant General Ion Michal Pacepa and University of Mississippi Law Professor Ronald Rychlak, documenting the pivotal role the Holy Land had played in the Cold War, has further reinforced this perspective. As has furthermore, the inexorable barbarity of Hamas on October 7th 2023, and since with its cavalier use of its own people as human shields, revealing amidst skyrocketing global anti-Semitism, and rising global Islamic persecution of Christians, the agenda of the Red-Green Axis to obliterate Israel and Christianity from existence, towards the ultimate facilitation of global tyranny.

So it is on that note, that I will conclude with the story of a letter<sup>xxxiii</sup> purportedly written by the American Civil War Confederate Brigadier General and Freemason of the Scottish Rite Albert Pike (1809-1891) to Genoese propagandist, revolutionary, founder of the secret revolutionary society Young Italy (1832), and a champion of the movement for Italian unity known as the Risorgimento, Giuseppe-Mazzini (1805-1872)<sup>378</sup> Titled the Illuminati Plan for 3 World Wars, dated August 15, 1871; the year of the birth of the German Empire on January 18th in the Hall of Mirrors in the French palace of Versailles, in the wake of the Prussian victory in the 1870-71 Franco-Prussian War, that took Germany into World War I.<sup>379</sup>

This letter, it is claimed, was on display in the British Museum Library in London until 1977, where it is claimed by numerous Internet sites to reside in the British Library in London, which denies the letter exists. Make of that what you will. In any event, the Illuminati Plan for 3 World Wars purportedly documented by Pike in the letter he wrote subsequent to a Satanic vision he earlier experienced, is as follows:

“The First World War must be brought about in order to permit the Illuminati to overthrow the power of the Czars in Russia and of making that country a fortress of atheistic Communism. The divergences caused by the ‘agentur’ (agents) of the Illuminati between the British and Germanic Empires will be used to foment this war. At the end of the war, Communism will be built and used in order to destroy the other governments and in order to weaken the religions.”

“The Second World War must be fomented by taking advantage of the differences between the Fascists and the political Zionists. This war must be brought about so that Nazism is destroyed and that the political Zionism be strong enough to institute a sovereign state of Israel in Palestine. During the Second World War, International Communism must become strong enough in order to balance Christendom, which would be then restrained and held in check until the time when we would need it for the final social cataclysm.”

xxxiii I found out about this letter and Albert Pike at <https://www.getalifedia.com/video/bibleclasses/worldreligions/video/freemasonry6.htm> from 01:00 to 01:11.

“The Third World War must be fomented by taking advantage of the differences caused by the ‘agentur’ of the ‘Illuminati’ between the political Zionists and the leaders of Islamic World. The war must be conducted in such a way that Islam (the Moslem Arabic World) and political Zionism (the State of Israel) mutually destroy each other.

Meanwhile the other nations, once more divided on this issue will be constrained to fight to the point of complete physical, moral, spiritual and economical exhaustion... We shall unleash the Nihilists and the atheists, and we shall provoke a formidable social cataclysm which in all its horror will show clearly to the nations the effect of absolute atheism, origin of savagery and of the most bloody turmoil.

Then everywhere, the citizens, obliged to defend themselves against the world minority of revolutionaries, will exterminate those destroyers of civilization, and the multitude, disillusioned with Christianity, whose deistic spirits will from that moment be without compass or direction, anxious for an ideal, but without knowing where to render its adoration, will receive the true light through the universal manifestation of the pure doctrine of Lucifer, brought finally out in the public view.

This manifestation will result from the general reactionary movement which will follow the destruction of Christianity and atheism, both conquered and exterminated at the same time.”<sup>380</sup>

On a Quora discussion post about Albert Pike, people claiming to be Freemasons, try to downplay the significance of Albert Pike, claiming that hardly any Freemasons know of him, and that his references to Lucifer are taken out of context. However, The Albert Pike Memorial was the only statue of a Confederate general in Washington DC until it was torn down in June 2020 by protesters during the nationwide radical-left perpetrated Summer Riots.<sup>xxxiv</sup>

To which, given the abundant references to Communism in the first two of Freemason Albert Pike’s world war scenarios, I may conclude with the following quote from the self-loathing and free loading Jew by descent that was Karl Marx himself:

“With Satan I have struck my deal. He chalks the signs, beats the time for me. I play the death march fast and free.”<sup>xxxv</sup>

May God not forsake Israel!

292 In regard to Scott Ritter, and his highly questionable agenda in supporting Putin and the genocidal Chinese Communist Party, see my BLOG article titled The Russian invasion of Ukraine – The double-edged Globalist engineered conundrum of deceit, deception, confusion and subversion at <https://vincebarwinski.com/2022/05/15/the-russian-invasion-of-ukraine-the-globalist-engineered-conundrum-of-deceit-deception-confusion-and-subversion/>. The photo of Putin whispering into Hilary Clinton's ear pretty much sums up my feelings on this war. 293 <https://www.worldviewweekend.com/tv/video/un-relief-chief-says-hamas-not-terrorist-group-and-jews-denied-rental-equipment-ski-resort>. Start from 16:10 and listen to at least 16:40, but I recommend you listen until 22:00 or even right to the end. Brannon Howse raises the pertinent question; "Will a terrorist group, namely the UN [UNRWA], admit that another terrorist group is a terrorist group."
