Subject: Education that seems to be badly in need for Bankstown-Lidcombe Hospital given the rabid anti-Semitic rant of two of its medical staff based on their perception of false history.

Saturday February 15, 2025

To South Western Sydney Local Health District Office

[18 minute read.]

How are you? My name is Vince Barwinski and I'm a part-time author/researcher, based in Brisbane. Since the disturbing global rise of anti-Semitism in the wake of October 7th 2023, and in part, motivated by the underlying story of my book, inspired in no small part by my autodidact father born in Poland in December 1923, but raised in Weimer Germany and Hitler's Reich, I was compelled to write my huge essay on the Israel-Hamas conflict, which was completed while I was in Taiwan in March 2024. Then almost immediately following, via a curious set of circumstances, featured in a detailed article by Rhoda Wilson of the UK Exposé.

Hence, I was compelled to write to you after viewing the 11 minute YouTube presentation by the Rebel News Australia reporter Avi Yemini, with background information that revealed a disturbing uneducated culture of rabid anti-Semitism at the Bankstown-Lidcombe Hospital, that underlined the recent rant by two of their staff; namely Ahmad “Rashad” Nadir and Sarah Abu Lebdeh.

While I am pleased they were deregistered by the Nursing and Midwifery Council of NSW, effective from February 13, 2025, I feel this incident should be investigated further, including as to why previous to which, whistleblowers alleging the underlying culture of anti-Semitism at the Bankstown-Lidcombe Hospital, were ignored and/or vilified.

Given the rant of Ahmad “Rashad” Nadir and Sarah Abu Lebdeh, it seems a fundamental pillar of their rabid anti-Semitism is their erroneous perception of the modern-day Palestinians being the indigenous inhabitants of the Gaza Strip.

And indeed, in my essay, titled I am a ZIONIST; but George Soros and the UN are NOT, from near the top of page 12 to page 16, I deal with this historic falsehood in depth, revealing its major underpinning of today’s anti-Semitism as chillingly embodied in the recent online rant of Ahmad “Rashad” Nadir and Sarah Abu Lebdeh.

But to summarise; the name Palestine derives from Philistia, the name given by Greek writers to the land of the Philistines – originally from the Aegean Sea, who in the 12th Century BC, about the time of the arrival of the Israelites, occupied a small pocket of land on the southern coast, between modern-day Tel Aviv–Yafo and Gaza. (Roughly corresponding with the territory of the modern-day Gaza Strip. Certainly nowhere near anything like what modern-day Israel encompasses.)<sup>1</sup> By 1,000 BC, the Israelite kingdom under King David and his son Solomon, even encompassed the modern-day Syrian capital of Damascus to the north and beyond, and well east of the River Jordan and the Dead Sea into modern-day Jordan.<sup>2</sup> The name was revived by the Romans in the 2nd century AD as “Syria Palaestina,” (Roman Palestine)<sup>3</sup>, in place of its original name of Judea, in the wake of the Jewish Bar Kokhba Revolt of 132-135 AD, designating the southern portion of the province of Syria, and made its way thence into Arabic, where it has been used to describe the region at least since the early Islamic era.

Put another way, the Romans, after two major revolts from the Jews in 70 AD and the 130s AD, had in order to spite the Jews, renamed Judea after its ancient mortal enemies the Philistines. This in spite of the fact, that the Philistines had disappeared from historical written record about six to seven centuries earlier, when the Babylonian king Nebuchadnezzar II \(reign ca. 605 BC – c. 562 BC\) conquered the region and destroyed several cities, including Ashkelon. Thus, this Roman province had nothing to do with the modern day Palestinian state, either geographically or ethnically. Moreover, this piece of essential history, puts paid to the ludicrous notion of Jesus being a Palestinian! As indeed espoused it seems, by Jorge Mario Bergoglio – the Marxist-Apostate Pope Francis.

To which, coupled with no genetic link between the ancient Philistines and modern-day Palestinians, unlike the definitive genetic links established between ancient Jews of around the time of the 70 AD Jerusalem siege and modern-day Jews, as documented in the 2010 study by the The American Society of Human Genetics, begs the question; “Where are modern-day Palestinians from and when did they arrive?”

Well, to begin with, the modern-day Palestinians are a mixed people of whom the majority descend from recent economic migrants, who flocked to the area between 1850 and 1950. A few Muslim families trace their history to the Arab conquest of Jerusalem in the 7th century, and some Jewish and Christian families go even back further. However, very few Palestinian Arabs are indigenous<sup>4</sup> – Arabs are not indigenous to the Israel and unsurprisingly, they originated from Arabia before they arrived in the Israel with the Muslim conquests of the 7th century, taking over from the rule of the Byzantine (Eastern Roman) Empire.

Certainly up until 1948, when since Christ's time, the region was ruled by various empires including the Roman, Byzantine (Eastern Roman), various Islamic Caliphates, the Turkish Ottoman Empire from 1516-1917, before the British captured Jerusalem in late December 1917 and occupied it until its mandate ended in May 1948. Never at any stage, from the time of Jesus until May 1948, did anything like a truly independent Palestinian state exist. And when it did as perhaps the land of "Philistia" of the Aegean-descended Philistines, at around the time of say King David, never was it anything like the area encompassing modern-day Israel. Rather, more like the area of the modern-day Gaza Strip.

To which, it is interesting to note, that the word "Israel" is mentioned sixty times in the Quran,<sup>5</sup> but "Palestine" and the third holiest city in Islam – namely "Jerusalem",<sup>6</sup> never,<sup>7</sup> while the two holiest cities<sup>8</sup> of "Mecca" (Makka)<sup>9</sup> and "Medina"<sup>10</sup> are. Moreover, neither is the word "Philistia" written in the Quran,<sup>11</sup> although Philistia is mentioned ten times in the Old Testament of the the Bible as either the land of "Philistia" or its people the "Philistines".<sup>12</sup>

Moreover, prominent members of the Palestinian Liberation Organisation – PLO, have admitted that the state of "Palestine" and its "Palestinian" people were indeed, a political construct specifically designed to undermine the modern-day state of Israel. To begin with, Zuheir Mohsen; the Military Department head of the PLO<sup>13</sup> from 1971 to 1979,<sup>14</sup> in an interview with the Dutch newspaper Trouw, on March 31st, 1977,<sup>15</sup> stated:

"There are no differences between Jordanians, Palestinians, Syrians, and Lebanese. We are all part of one nation. It is only for political reasons that we carefully underline our Palestinian identity.... yes, the existence of a separate Palestinian identity serves only tactical purposes. The founding of a Palestinian state is a new tool in the continuing battle against Israel."<sup>16</sup>

Zuheir Mohsen was born in 1936 in Tulkarm of then British mandated Palestine in the modern-day West Bank. He was assassinated on July 26th, 1979, in Nice, France; shot in the head by gunmen on his way home from the Palm Beach Casino in Cannes.

And from no less than the late Jordanian King Hussein bin Talal from 1952 until his death in 1999, as he proclaimed at the Arab League summit in 1987 in the Jordanian capital of Amman:

"The appearance of the Palestinian national personality comes as an answer to Israel's claim that Palestine is Jewish."<sup>17</sup>

As Martin Sherman<sup>18</sup> put it:

"King Hussein of Jordan conceded that Palestinian identity was merely a response to Jewish national claims and was not driven by any authentic endogenic sentiment of uniqueness."<sup>19</sup>
... From this, we are compelled to conclude that, if there were no Jewish claims to 'Palestine,' there would be no Palestinian Arab claims. Therefore, these claims are merely a derivative of Jewish claims, without which they would not exist."<sup>20</sup>

Conversely, unlike the relatively recent and contrived identity of Palestine and the Palestinians, is it not worth pondering, how remarkable it is, that after almost two millennia of displacement and trauma, the Jewish culture, religion and identity has persisted, when almost any other, would have ceased to exist? Certainly, an inexorably disturbing, nagging and annoying question for any raving anti-Semite. Not the least of which being, those chanting “gas the Jews” at your Opera House just a day or two in the wake of the horrors of October 7th 2023.

Hence, it is at this point, that the opportunity for a poignant segue, explaining the presence of the name “George Soros” in the title of my essay has presented itself. Namely, that since 2016, groups behind the Israel-bashing protests backing the October 7th 2023 Hamas attacks, have received in excess of $16 million from the radical-left nominal-Jewish-Hungarian-American Billionaire and Globalist George Soros,<sup>21</sup> of whom, many anti-Semites, due to Soros’ Jewish heritage, perceive of him being a staunch pro-Zionist. The actions however of Soros, and the documents on his websites, clearly suggest otherwise.

Moreover, it’s worth mentioning that the Palestine Liberation Organisation (PLO) headed by Yasser Arafat, was himself in the early 1960s, tasked by the Soviet KGB disinformation department to create and head a terrorist group named Fatah.<sup>22</sup> Subsequent to which, in the aftermath of the 1967 Six Day Arab-Israeli War, the KGB manoeuvred to catapult him as chairman of the PLO.<sup>23</sup> Indeed, the Egyptian ruler and Soviet puppet, Gamal Abdel Nasser, publicly proposed the appointment.<sup>24</sup>

Moreover, it’s worth noting, that what today we would refer to as Palestinians in the Gaza Strip and West Bank, had no objection back in 1948-67, to being considered part of Egypt and Jordan respectively. In other words, no bellowing then of occupation in the “Palestinian” territories when they were under the control of the Muslim-Arab nations of Egypt and Jordan.

The other dubious claim from Ahmad and Sarah’s rant, was their reference to members of the Israeli Defense Force (IDF) being wanton child killers in the Gaza war. But what they do not mention, is the wanton exploitation by Hamas of civilian occupants, including women and children, of schools, hospitals and the like as human shields, because for Hamas, dead civilians are of great propaganda value for a naive, gullible and corrupt-leftist-mainstream-media-indoctrinated Western audience.

For example, on January 3rd 2024, the Israeli government released a video interview of a Gaza civilian who said a Hamas operative herded his group into Al Shifa Hospital when they were trying to follow IDF instructions to flee south. Terrorists were living under the hospital, but knowing Israeli soldiers were coming, they emerged and hid among the civilians. “I felt that we are human shields,” the civilian said. The Israeli military said on Jan. 3 that it had dismantled an 800-foot [244 metre] tunnel underneath Al Shifa Hospital in Gaza City, which the nefarious UN agency of UNRWA operates. In regard to the nefarious UN agency that is UNRWA, [search for “UNRWA” in my essay.]

In short, in direct contradiction to Ahmad and Sarah’s rant, Israel tries its best to limit civilian casualties, while Hamas, for propaganda purposes, for a corrupt-leftist-mainstream-media-indoctrinated Western audience, attempts to maximize them.

Moreover, claims of inordinately high Gazan civilian casualties in the war, have been proven questionable to say the least, given that the main source for the data, has been the highly questionable Hamas-controlled Gaza Health Ministry, which by March 7th, 2024, claimed more than 30,000 dead, the majority of which it says are children and women.<sup>25</sup>

“Questionable” here being the operative word of understatement, given the bombing of the Al-Ahli Arab hospital in mid-October 2023, when Hamas claimed Israel had levelled Al-Ahli Arab hospital with an airstrike, eliciting outrage from around the world as its allies screamed war crime and the media rushed to prop up Hamas’ story. For example, “Pravda On The Hudson” – New York Times

has been reported as doing as such by the no less left-leaning Politico, before being forced to hastily alter their story.

And as Abraham Wyner, Professor of Statistics and Data Science at The Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania and Faculty Co-Director of the Wharton Sports Analytics and Business Initiative documented;

“Here’s the problem with this data: The numbers are not real. That much is obvious to anyone who understands how naturally occurring numbers work. The casualties are not overwhelmingly women and children, and the majority may be Hamas fighters. If Hamas’ numbers are faked or fraudulent in some way, there may be evidence in the numbers themselves that can demonstrate it. While there is not much data available, there is a little, and it is enough: From Oct. 26 until Nov. 10, 2023, the Gaza Health Ministry released daily casualty figures that include both a total number and a specific number of women and children.”

In summing up, Abraham Wyner puts it as follows:

“Taken together, what does this all imply? While the evidence is not dispositive, it is highly suggestive that a process unconnected or loosely connected to reality was used to report the numbers. Most likely, the Hamas ministry settled on a daily total arbitrarily. We know this because the daily totals increase too consistently to be real. Then they assigned about 70% of the total to be women and children, splitting that amount randomly from day to day. Then they in-filled the number of men as set by the predetermined total. This explains all the data observed.”

AND ...

“The truth can’t yet be known and probably never will be. The total civilian casualty count is likely to be extremely overstated. Israel estimates that at least 12,000 fighters have been killed. If that number proves to be even reasonably accurate, then the ratio of noncombatant casualties to combatants is remarkably low: at most 1.4 to 1 and perhaps as low as 1 to 1. By historical standards of urban warfare, where combatants are embedded above and below into civilian population centers, this is a remarkable and successful effort to prevent unnecessary loss of life while fighting an implacable enemy that protects itself with civilians.”

I will wrap up this letter with this final point. Namely, that in August to September 2005, Israel completely withdrew from the Gaza Strip in the spirit of their 1978-79 Camp David Peace Treaty with Egypt embodying the concept of “land for peace”. In the process, even Jewish graves were removed!

Some, such as the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, naively predicted or hoped that by reconciling with their Palestinian political rivals in Fatah, Hamas would become more responsive to its own public and ultimately a more moderate movement, but that did not happen. Indeed, in June 2006 Hamas operatives penetrated into Israel via tunnels dug from Gaza, ambushed an Israeli border patrol, killing two soldiers and injuring two more, and kidnapped Israeli soldier Gilad Shalit. Hamas would hold Shalit captive for five years, releasing him in exchange for the release of 1,027 Palestinians held in Israeli jails.

From the 10th to the 15th of June 2007, the Battle of Gaza, also referred to as the Hamas’ takeover of Gaza, took place. It was a military conflict between the rival Palestinian factions Fatah (As just mentioned, Fatah was founded by Arafat under KGB behest in the early 1960s)<sup>26</sup> and Hamas. It was a prominent event in the Fatah– Hamas conflict, centered on the struggle for power after Fatah lost the 2006 Palestinian legislative election, but refused to duly acknowledge the result. The battle resulted in the dissolution of the unity government and the de facto division of the Palestinian territories into two entities: the West Bank (historically Jewish Judea and Samaria) governed by the Palestinian National Authority (PNA), and the Gaza Strip governed by Hamas. Hamas fighters took control of the Gaza Strip, while Fatah officials were either taken as prisoners, executed, or expelled. The Palestinian Centre for Human Rights reported that at least 161 people were killed and more than 700 were wounded during the fighting.<sup>27</sup>

By December 2008 Hamas initiated the first in a series of rocket wars with Israel. By 2015, after three rounds of rocket wars, some still assessed that Hamas would prioritize survival over “resistance” (i.e. fighting Israel) and placed hope in periodic efforts to reconcile Fatah and Hamas, each of which failed as Hamas refused to give up its arms and abide by peace process commitments.

Moreover, it was unlimited Western funding made available to Gaza, that in no small measure, greatly facilitated Hamas’ never-ending Jihad against Israel, as proclaimed in *The 1988 Covenant Of The Islamic Resistance Movement – Hamas* as:

“Israel will exist, and will continue to exist, until Islam abolishes it, as it abolished that which was before it. [From the words of] The martyr, Imam Hasan al-Banna’, Allah’s mercy be upon him.”

AND:

“Humiliation is their lot wherever they may be, except where they are saved from it by a bond with Allah or by a bond with men.”<sup>28</sup>

AND:

“The hour of judgment shall not come until the Muslims fight the Jews and kill them, so that the Jews hide behind trees and stones, and each tree and stone will say: ‘Oh Muslim, oh servant of Allah, there is a Jew behind me, come and kill him, except for the Gharqad tree, for it is the tree of the Jews.’ (Recorded in the Hadith collections of Bukhari and Muslim).”

In short; Hamas remained committed to its core principle of prioritizing the destruction of Israel over the well-being of Palestinian civilians, as embodied in its global context as:

“The issue is never the issue, but rather Jihad until the ‘paradise’ of the Global Caliphate.”

To which; Hamas can never again be allowed to rule in Gaza or for that matter, anywhere else. Indicative of which being the burning question:

“Why does Egypt refuse to accept any Gazan refugees,<sup>29</sup> in spite of Gaza being Egyptian territory before the 1967 Six Day war,<sup>30</sup> and in spite of the fact that Egypt already hosts 9 million immigrants and foreigners from various countries in the Middle East and Africa?”<sup>31</sup>

All the best and God Bless

That same night he was taken up to heaven from the site of the Dome of the Rock for an encounter with God (see Mi’rāj). However, the mosques on that site today, namely the Dome of the Rock and the Al-Aqsa Mosque, were not built until the late seventh century of 600s AD or early eighth century of 700s AD – which was many decades after Mohammed died in 632 AD. See <https://www.britannica.com/place/Jerusalem> and <https://www.britannica.com/biography/Muhammad>.

31 <https://www.fdd.org/analysis/2023/10/17/israel-war-why-wouldnt-egypt-want-gazan-refugees/>. The answer I often hear to this thorny question to the pro-Hamas perspective, is that Gazan refugees are not Egypt's responsibility. But of course, one can talk of how Poland accepts Ukrainian refugees fleeing from Putin bombing their country. To which these pro-Hamas types give Putin a free pass. And as the question states, "Egypt already hosts 9 million immigrants and foreigners from various countries in the Middle East and Africa."
